Structure, Governance and Management

Bethel House of Prayer is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation. The charity is governed by its trustees, who meet regularly to oversee the running of the fellowship and are supported by a small team of volunteers.

Objects and Activities

The objects of the charity are the advancement of the Christian faith and such other charitable purposes as the trustees may from time to time determine, for the public benefit.

During the year, the charity's activities consisted of:

- Sunday worship service
- Sunday School for children
- Wednesday evening prayer meeting

The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in exercising their duties.

Achievements and Performance

The charity continued to hold its regular pattern of Sunday worship, Sunday School and Wednesday prayer meetings throughout the year, welcoming a multicultural congregation reflecting the diversity of the local community. The trustees are grateful to the volunteers who supported these activities.

Financial Review

The charity had no incoming resources and no resources expended during the year. The charity held no funds at the start of the year and held no funds at the end of the year.

The trustees confirm that the charity has no material financial transactions to report and no reserves policy is required at this time, given the charity's current level of activity.

Structure and Reserves Policy

As the charity has not yet received or expended funds, the trustees have not adopted a formal reserves policy. This will be kept under review as the charity's financial activity develops.

Trustees' Responsibilities Statement

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations. Charity law requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of its financial activities for that year.

The trustees confirm that, as far as they are aware, there is no relevant information of which the charity's examiner is unaware, and each trustee has taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the examiner is aware of that information.

Approved by the trustees on 29 July 2026 and signed on their behalf by:
