Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts	Para 1.17 and 1.19	eavesdropping is an annual series of live performances and a symposium celebrating new music, founded by soprano Juliet Fraser in 2017. Its overarching charitable objects are the advancement of the performing arts, specifically music, for the public benefit, and the advancement of the education of the public in general in the subject of music.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole	Para 1.20	Despite the ongoing challenges of a global pandemic, the charity delivered a third season of activity in full, this time with a festival format, over the course of a single week. The series was filmed as live and broadcast online 20-23 April 2021 and the symposium was held online 24-25 April 2021. As such, the charity provided much-needed support (artistic and financial) for the featured artists, a valued programme of musical activity for the public, and an informative and stimulating weekend of discourse for those participating in the symposium. Feedback was overwhelmingly positive, testifying to the broad public benefit.
