Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objectives of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote the social inclusion, for the public benefit, of men (particularly, but not exclusively, older men) who are living within a 10 mile radius of Grange Over Sands by preventing them from becoming socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society and the wider community.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Grange Shed Charity was registered in February 2019 and the first activity of this year was to promote the objectives of the charity for the public benefit to local organisations with a view to securing grants and donations to fund the charity into the future. This was successfully achieved in March raising £2000, with grateful thanks for their generous support to Grange Town Council, The Gateway Group, The Grange Lions and Councillor David Khan. A bank account was then opened.

The next activity was to find suitable premises for the charity to fulfil its objectives. This was achieved courtesy of South Lakes District Council (SLDC) who offered the charity one of their empty buildings and a three-year lease was negotiated and agreed.

The next activity was to launch the charity to the general public, and this was achieved with a launch meeting held in a local hotel in early May. This was widely advertised in the local area with posters and leaflets and a good turnout was achieved. The objectives of the charity for the public benefit were promoted to the audience and, at the end of the meeting, 20 attending men signed up to become founder members and paid their annual subscription.

The next activity undertaken was to make the premises suitable for the charities proposed activities. The trustees together with several of the new members set about furnishing and equipping the premises. Safety and risk assessments were carried out to ensure that the premises were a safe place for potentially vulnerable men to attend. Donated furniture enabled the setting up of a comfortable area for members to socialise over a cup of coffee. Work benches were constructed, and tools and equipment were acquired to allow members to pursue their hobbies and activities.

In June, the premises were formally opened by the mayor and for the following few months the premises were in regular use on 2 days each week with 10 or more of the 25 members working on a variety of woodworking projects. A separate cohort of members set up a photography group. A number of projects were successfully completed for local community groups including pyramid frames and a table for the sensory garden on the promenade (for the Grange Soroptomists) and a memorial bench for the local primary school. One member, with no previous woodworking skills, was coached and guided to build a cider press.

The main objective of the charity was successfully achieved during these months giving social inclusion to many of the members who would otherwise have been isolated.

In October, the charity was shocked to discover that SLDC had tied a notice to the lamppost outside our premises stating that they had applied (to themselves) for planning permission to convert the building into a residential refuge. This complete and utter breakdown in communication had a profound impact on our embryonic enterprise, severely damaging the morale of both our members and trustees. In addition, it slowed recruitment of new members due to the substantial uncertainty it generated about the charities continued existence. After much protest, SLDC offered us another premises at a much-inflated rent and eventually new lease terms were agreed with them early in 2020. This sorry episode meant that the charity basically had to start again, the old premises had to be gutted of the workbenches etc and the new premises made safe, furnished and kitted out with new workbenches as had been done 9 months earlier with the first premises. The year ended with the new premises nearly ready for reopening for the members and to once again offer many of them the social inclusion that they had enjoyed during 2019

As mentioned in our previous report our premises had to change but we were able to set up and continue our activities from 9 March 2020. However, less than 10 days later we had to go into lock-down which forced all activity to cease. We were able to re-open on 5th October 2020 and commenced work on a number of projects for other community charitable groups. We commenced the work on the preparation of covered seating for the Soroptimist's Sensory Garden and an Owl Box for a local care home. But just when we thought we were able to develop we were forced into lock-down again from 5 November and operation was impossible for the remainder of the Report year. When lock-down was finally lifted we were able to start again. We are back to our operational programme and have completed the projects that were trapped by lock-downs, worked with a variety of community groups and local charities and also carried out some work for disabled people. We did lose some of our membership during the lock-down but we are now growing our membership again and building on our strengths and skills which will be a focus on the next year Report.

Section E*Financial review*Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Shed will hold reserves in order to

1. Fulfil its obligations to its landlord and utility service providers
2. To purchase tools for the members to use on projects related to Work in cooperation with other organisations in the local area
3. As a precaution should unplanned expenditure be necessary the reserves are held in the current bank account

We do not have restricted reserves at this time and we will review this each year as we become established.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
