Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objective of Christ Forgiveness Ministries is to “Advancement of Religion for Public benefits by sharing information and promoting Christian faith through Evangelical ministry and Outreach activities within the UK and Worldwide”. As charity we also exist to for the purpose of the “prevention or relief of poverty for the public benefit by carry out outreach work, providing food, shelter, social care, rehabilitation and counselling for homeless, a person facing hardship and those in need in the UK”.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	As a charity we provide the following services to the public. We meet these objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• By establishing and operating a church for public benefit.</li> <li>• By offering regular meetings and other opportunities for public worship at the church.</li> <li>• By providing information regarding spiritual beliefs and the activities of the organisation to members and the general public.</li> <li>• By providing religious education and nurturing the spiritual development of all members by holding meetings for corporate worship.</li> <li>• By providing Public and social media broadcasting of Christian faith messages of an evangelistic and teaching nature.</li> <li>• By contributing to followers and public good mental and physical health with regards to speeding recovery and fostering composure in the face of ill health.</li> <li>• Christ’s Forgiveness Ministries (CFM) Governing</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>By carrying out outreach work for public benefits to relieve poverty, addiction, anxiety, physical and Spiritual illness and emotional challenges through Biblical teaching, Spiritual and emotional support including Prayer, Food/Shelter service and social care and counselling.</li> </ul>
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	Donations and contributions are received in compliance with charity law, our constitution, and the wishes of members and trustees, ensuring transparency and accountability. During the financial year 2024/25, a total of £41,222.18 was received through internal donations, savings, contributions, and Gift Aid within CFM London. A significant portion of our funding is allocated to hall rentals for meetings, the purchase of equipment, refreshments, media, and informational materials. Some were also delegated for charity work in the local community and conferences. In determining our priorities, the Corporate Trustee Board, particularly the members of the Charitable Funds Committee in London, carefully consider the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and its implications for CFM.

Additional information (optional)

	SORP reference
Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	CFM, as a charity, does not currently have a grant-making policy and does not provide grants.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	This charity does not hold any social investments. Therefore, we have not included any policy on social investments.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	The volunteers of CFM are primarily members of the organization or church congregation who actively support the charity's operations without receiving any payment. They contribute to the maintenance of facilities, street and homeless outreach, and other public services as outlined in Paragraphs 1.17 and 1.19 of the charity's guidelines.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	CFM London have consistently provided a welcoming place of worship for members of the public. Our places of worship remain open to all, regardless of gender, culture, or social status, and are free of charge. We have experienced an increasing number of individuals seeking spiritual, emotional, and social support. We have successfully accommodated these needs while expanding our outreach efforts. Our street evangelism and homeless and community outreach, which took place every two months, are now conducted on a monthly basis. We regularly extend a helping hand to those in need by offering guidance on available support services, providing food, and sharing information about food banks and advice and information on homeless shelters. Over the years, we have witnessed a growing number of individuals, including those without a regular place of worship seeking comfort, those seeking a welcoming and supporting community, and a sense of belonging within our congregation. Additionally, we continue to support families facing challenges, assist individuals with health concerns, and provide guidance to young people struggling with mental health issues, addiction, and isolation through prayer, counseling, and Biblical teaching, mentorship and encouragement.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	As a family-centered church, we take great pride in achieving many of our objectives through strong partnerships. We have witnessed an overwhelmingly positive response to the Gospel, with many individuals embracing discipleship in Christ Jesus. However, while we continue to provide essential support through food banks, community services, and clothing donations, we are not yet in a financial position to offer shelter for the homeless. Additionally, due to regulatory requirements, policy constraints, and limited expertise, we are unable to provide direct counseling services for minors. To ensure the safety and well-being of those we serve, all key personnel are required to undergo DBS disclosure. We have been able to maintain a good record of our volunteers and church members records including training such as health and safety, Child protection and safeguarding. Furthermore, we actively support individuals by providing referrals and recommending specialist organizations that offer professional assistance, as these organizations receive regular training and maintain the necessary expertise.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	The charity did not perform any fund-raising activities and do not have any performances record. All funds and income activities are detailed in the section Para 1.47.
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	The charity did not perform any investments in either in property, land or business. Although we hope to invest if the right opportunity present itself. However, the charity continues to support other existing charities either through funding or personnel.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity's current financial position reflects a closing balance of £34,651.65, demonstrating prudent financial management and a commitment to supporting our mission. This balance is derived from a total income of £41,222.18 generated through donations, contributions, and Gift Aid during the financial year. Our total expenses amounted to £41,772.42, covering essential operational costs, including hall rentals for meetings, broadcasting equipment purchases, refreshments, self-employment payment, conferences, media materials, and outreach activities. Unlike last year, there was no surplus cash income but rather we ended the year with expenditure above our income.
		For a detailed breakdown of income, expenses, and overall financial performance, please refer to the financial account table at the end of this report. Please see the financial account table at the end of the page for more details and full accounts.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	CFM's primary operations focus on providing a place of worship, counseling services, and meeting spaces for hosting Christian events and other religious gatherings. In alignment with this mission, CFM has established a policy to ensure the availability of reserved funds for securing a new meeting space for worship when urgently needed. Additionally, the charity maintains designated funds specifically allocated for special ministry purposes, such as building projects, mission retreat and food bank initiatives. These funds are carefully managed to support the long-term sustainability of our services and to meet the needs of the community effectively.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	CFM, as a charity, has agreed to maintain a reserve fund of £13,000 Annually to cover essential operational expenses, including meeting hall rentals, monthly contractual obligations, and maintenance costs. In the event of contract termination, this reserve will ensure financial preparedness by covering the necessary deposit and first month's rent for securing a new meeting hall, allowing for the continued smooth operation of our worship and community services.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	N/A
	Para 1.23

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	CFM's primary source of funding comes from contributions, Gift aids and church donations made by its members and trustees, commonly referred to as tithes and offerings. Occasionally, we may request additional support from our members when hosting special events or to meet specific ministry needs, ensuring the continued success of our charitable and religious initiatives.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	All of CFM's assets and income are dedicated exclusively to advancing and promoting its charitable objectives. None of CFM's income or property may be distributed to its members in the form of dividends, bonuses, or any other form of profit. However, trustees may be reimbursed from CFM's funds for reasonable expenses properly incurred while acting on behalf of the charity, ensuring transparency and accountability in financial management. The charity (church) continues to ensure it meets its operation effectively through self-employment of the contractor who may serve as ministers.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	Due to work, family and education commitments, the charity struggles to maintain members consistency. This resulted in the reduced attendance our members and therefore we were unable to fully run our public services. Therefore, since majority of our funds are received during worship and meetings times, absent members do not contribute physically and financially.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:		Christ's Forgiveness Ministries (CFM) is a non-denominational religious organization dedicated to advancing religion for the public benefit. Our mission is to share the Christian faith through evangelical ministry and outreach activities, both within the UK and globally. As part of our commitment to serving communities, we work towards the prevention and relief of poverty by engaging in outreach initiatives that provide food, shelter, social care, rehabilitation, and counseling for individuals experiencing homelessness, hardship, or other urgent needs. CFM also hosts weekly events both on the streets and within church buildings, offering a place of worship, emotional support, and spiritual guidance to the general public, fostering a sense of belonging and hope.
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	Constitution: CFM governing document sets out the charity's objects or purposes and how it is to be administered within the constitution.
How is the charity constituted? (e.g. unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	Christ's Forgiveness Ministries or CFM is a charity incorporated organisation also known as CIO – ASSOCIATION. On the 16th of August 202, the charity changed it structure and amend its model through resolution from Foundation model to Association model for the purpose of effectiveness in carrying out our objectives.

Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g., election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must be selected from the current members of the church leadership team either nationally or international. They must be highly reputable, experienced, and skilled and have shown strong commitment to the Charity mission and objectives. The leadership team are often a member of the church (CFM) who have shown consistency and commitment to the operation and service of CFM. The individual must have been a leader for at least 12 months while carrying out his/her duties. We may also select trustee from our oversees global churches and headquarters (CFM Global) The trustees are all equally responsible for appointing the new trustee after a meeting and collective agreement.

Set out on pages

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 29/04/2025.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Our places of worship remain open to all, regardless of gender, culture, or social status, and are free of charge. Both churches have experienced an increasing number of individuals seeking spiritual, emotional, and social support. We have successfully accommodated these needs while expanding our outreach efforts. Our street evangelism and homeless outreach, which previously took place quarterly, are now conducted on a monthly basis. We regularly extend a helping hand to those in need by offering guidance on available support services, providing food, and sharing information about food banks and homeless shelters. Over the years, we have witnessed a growing number of individuals, including those without a regular place of worship, seeking comfort, community, and a sense of belonging within our congregation. Additionally, we continue to support families facing challenges, assist individuals with health concerns, and provide guidance to young people struggling with mental health issues, addiction, and isolation through prayer, counseling, and encouragement.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	As a family-centered church, we take great pride in achieving many of our objectives through strong partnerships. We have witnessed an overwhelmingly positive response to the Gospel, with many individuals embracing discipleship in Christ Jesus. However, while we continue to provide essential support through food banks, community services, and clothing donations, we are not yet in a financial position to offer shelter for the homeless. Additionally, due to regulatory requirements, policy constraints, and limited expertise, we are unable to provide direct counseling services for minors. To ensure the safety and well-being of those we serve, all key personnel are required to undergo DBS disclosure. Furthermore, we actively support individuals by providing referrals and recommending specialist organizations that offer professional assistance, as these organizations receive regular training and maintain the necessary expertise.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	The charity did not perform any fund-raising activities and do not have any performances record. All funds and income activities are detailed in the section Para 1.47.
Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41	The charity did not perform any investments in either in property, land, or business. Although we hope to invest if the right opportunity present itself. However, the charity continues to support other existing charities either through funding or personnel.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity's current financial position reflects a closing balance of £35,201, demonstrating prudent financial management and a commitment to supporting our mission. This balance is derived from a total income of £37,068 generated through donations, contributions, and Gift Aid during the financial year. Our total expenses amounted to £25,585, covering essential operational costs, including hall rentals for meetings, equipment purchases, refreshments, media materials, and outreach activities. The surplus enables the charity to continue delivering valuable community services and maintain financial stability.

		For a detailed breakdown of income, expenses, and overall financial performance, please refer to the financial account table at the end of this report. Please see the financial account table at the end of the page for more details and full accounts.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	CFM's primary operations focus on providing a place of worship, counseling services, and meeting spaces for hosting Christian events and other religious gatherings. In alignment with this mission, CFM has established a policy to ensure the availability of reserved funds for securing a new meeting space for worship when urgently needed. Additionally, the charity maintains designated funds specifically allocated for special ministry purposes, such as building projects and food bank initiatives. These funds are carefully managed to support the long-term sustainability of our services and to meet the needs of the community effectively.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	CFM, as a charity, has agreed to maintain a reserve fund of £6,000 to cover essential operational expenses, including meeting hall rentals, monthly contractual obligations, and maintenance costs. In the event of contract termination, this reserve will ensure financial preparedness by covering the necessary deposit and first month's rent for securing a new meeting hall, allowing for the continued smooth operation of our worship and community services.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 29/04/2024.

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
