- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Charity appoints trustees who are professional, with good standing within their local communities and who are active in promoting and supporting the work of the charity.

The charity has continued to build strong relationships with other Sikh Charities and interfaith groups across the UK.

All trustees give their time voluntarily and receive no remuneration or any other benefit.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Advance the sikh religion in the United Kingdom but especially in the south-west of england and wales for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebration of religious festivals, producing and/or distributing literature to enlighten others about the sikh religion.

The benefit of this is to provide the general public with knowledge on the sikh faith. activities will also include: ·the provision of education of the gurmukhi language for people of all ages; ·education on the subject of sikh scriptural studies and sikh philosophy and ·the provision of training in classical and contemporary indian musical arts in accordance with the teachings of the sikh religion.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Bristol Gurmat Class runs multiple weekly classes teaching around 100 individuals. Religious services are held. Free Food (Langar) is offered to all our participants and is cooked and prepared by our volunteers.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

A great contribution is made by all volunteers who help Bristol Gurmat Class. We are grateful to all those who have supported the charity.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

At the end of the previous Financial year (May 2023) we moved into our new permanent premises at the Old Flowerpot Inn, High Street, Kingswood, Bristol, BS15 4AQ. This meant we became responsible for the operation and associated running costs of this permanent base. We invested in our equipment, security and IT.

Additionally, we continued to hire May Park Primary School for our Saturday class.

In July 2023 we organised an outdoor event (Gurmat Samagam) at our new site inaugurating the premises. In August we held our first residential camp for over 100 attendees in South Wales.

The rest of the academic year we continued to host an array of religious/ interfaith and educational events.

Each event was supplemented by free meals provided by the organisation (Guru Ka Langar).

We continued to support local charities and worked to support Bristol and Bath's Sikh Student Unions.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
