Public Benefit

The Trustees confirm that they have given due consideration to the Charity Commission published guidance on the public benefit requirement under the Charities act 2011.

During the period of review the charity has established itself and was operating originally from its premises in St James Street, Brighton, but moved to The Ledward Centre, Brighton recruiting unpaid volunteers to be trained to deliver the services outlined within the context of Brighton and Hove, and the surrounding areas, as well as preparing the office space in a way that preserves individual confidentiality along with both volunteer and service user safety.

Initial funding came from The Rainbow Fund (registered number 1181116) with additional funding from a grants by Brighton and Hove City Council.

Achievements and Performance

The Charity recruited and trained and retained some Fifteen 15 unpaid volunteers to help deliver the charities services on a rotational shift basis. On average volunteers worked, in pairs, for three hours per week each covering opening times at the hub. Training included the following aspects over the period:

dealing with clients in a supportive and confidential manner dealing with difficult situations and/or clients who may present with a variety of issues including substance abuse general training on matters relating to social disadvantage such as homelessness, (food) poverty and health promotion, and issues specifically affecting the LGBTQ+ community such as trans gender awareness structured discussions with other local service providers, and charities, about the issues facing potential service users

health and safety training within a public facing environment

The Rainbow Hub volunteers established a programme to meet service providers and understand the services offered and performed by local charities to enable them to better signpost as and when appropriate. In addition, volunteers 'buddied up' with representatives of the service providers in order to better develop working relationships.

The office space is now in The Ledward Centre which is an LGBTQ+ local hub in Brighton offering a range of support services

Social media and press advertising have been used to bring local awareness.
