(Foundation Structure)

Trustees selection method:

Initial Board of Trustees - at least 3 persons, nominated by the Wallingford & Didcot District Rotary Club, and no more than 5.

New Trustees may be recruited to the Board at any time by the Trustees.

In selecting individuals for appointment as Trustees, the Trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C : Objectives and activities

Summary of the objectives of the charity set out in its governing document:

The relief of the poor and needy in the Wallingford & Didcot District, or elsewhere in the world, or such other charitable purpose, institution or object as the Trustees may from time to time direct.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objectives:

The grants given are fully detailed in the Annual Accounts.

Additional details of objectives and activities:

The charity was registered following a bequest from the estate of the late Sylvia Dawn Prior. This provided the bulk of the charity's income, with additional income from fund-raising undertaken by the Wallingford & Didcot District Rotary Club.

Grant criteria has been agreed by the trustees with sums being available for:

- (i) Local Community Grants;
- (ii) International Projects - including Rotary Foundation & Polio Plus;
- (iii) Youth Projects including Interact, Rotakids, Rotary youth competitions & RYLA;
- (iv) the Wallingford & Didcot District Rotary Club, to support them in their fund-raising activities;
- (v) other charities or community groups, with preference always for our local community, rather than for national charities which have no obvious direct benefit to the local community.
- (vi) No donations to be made to:
 - (a) charities/organisations whose primary aims are animal rescue/conservation.
 - (b) charities/organisations who are raising funds for other charities/organisations.
 - (c) individuals, even if they are carrying out charitable works.

Section D : Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year:

The grants given are fully detailed in the Annual Accounts.

A number of fundraising activities were undertaken during the year.

With the support of the Rotary Foundation, we have been able to give continued support to victims of the attack on Ukraine, by way of providing English speaking lessons, as well as school uniforms and equipment for children.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act)) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to <ul style="list-style-type: none">• examine the accounts (under section 43 of the Act),• to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the Act), and• to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts Presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements to ensure that:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• proper accounting records are kept (in accordance with section 41 of the Act); and• accounts are prepared which agree with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; or2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
