Trustees' Report for the period ended 31 December 2022

Objectives and activities

The objects of the CIO are:

- (a) The advancement of public education by the provision of a museum at Cuckfield comprising items of local historic, artistic or other significance including the collection and such other items as may from time to time be donated to, acquired by or loaned to the Trustees;
- (b) The display, conservation, storage, maintenance, insurance and enhancement of the items comprising the museum collection; and
- (c) The advancement of public education in subjects relevant to the items comprising the museum collection
- (d) The production of research relating to the items comprising the museum collection and the publication of the results thereof.

Achievements and performance

2022 has seen a return to normal activity for the museum although the opening hours are reduced compared with the period prior to the COVID 19 pandemic. In addition to our normal opening hours we have continued to support the local community by:

- (a) Maintaining an active presence on social media and the museum's website;
- (b) Continuing to provide loan boxes to local schools;
- (c) Answering queries from the public on local history;
- (d) Acquiring new exhibits for the museum's collection.

The Executive Committee has completed an extensive review of the collection and a number of disposals have taken place. The review has also involved updating the museum's catalogue system.

Financial review

The charity's financial statements and position have been scrutinised by an external examiner and the details are set out on pages 4 to 6 below. The Trustees would like to note that the Covid pandemic had a major impact on the level of regular subscriptions with many Friends in particular, not renewing their subscriptions. Notwithstanding the impact of Covid we have received substantial, one-off donations which have been used to fund conservation work on the collection. Conversely payments could not be reduced due to the number of recurring annual payments such as insurance premiums. However, given the level of reserves the CIO's financial position is stable.

Structure, governance and management

On 6 March 2019 a new organisation, The Cuckfield Museum Charitable Incorporated Organisation (the CIO) was registered with the Charity Commission to take over the running of the museum from the Cuckfield Museum Trust. The charity's registered number is 1182604. As a result, all activities are now conducted through the new organisation and the Trust was wound up formally during 2022.

The CIO operates in accordance with its constitution which has been approved and adopted by the CIO Trustees. Policy decisions are taken by the Board of Trustees while the day to day running of the museum is delegated to an Executive Committee. The CIO is managed by ten Trustees, as at 31 December 2022, who are identified and appointed according to their skills and abilities in relation to the effective direction of the museum's activities.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with the guidance published by the Charity Commission. All our activities are planned in line with our Charitable Objectives and the use of museum facilities is free to all members of the public.

Declarations

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Signed on behalf of the charity's trustees

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Cuckfield Museum Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)

I report on the accounts of the CIO for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on pages 1 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that, in any material respect:

- a. accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act and
- b. the accounts do not comply with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
