From 07/04/2022 Period start date To 31/03/2023 Period end date

Charity name: ENTIRE PERSON EDUCATION

Charity registration number: 1182675

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	Entire Person Education aims to advance the education of persons under 21 through various activities and programs. They support schools domestically and internationally, assist other charities focused on education, and help children with learning and behavioural difficulties.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity offers after-school clubs, workshops, lessons, courses, conferences, and mentoring programs. They build and maintain schools, deliver courses, run clubs, and train staff. Additionally, they support parents and local education authorities in educational efforts.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have duly considered the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit in carrying out the charity's activities and decision-making processes.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity's financial position at the end of the period reflects a stable situation with no trading activity. Assets are held in accordance with the charity's objectives, ensuring financial stability and prudent management.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity maintains reserves to ensure financial resilience and to mitigate against unforeseen circumstances or fluctuations in income. These reserves provide a financial buffer to support the charity's ongoing operations and to fund future projects or emergencies.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£0
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	The charity's decision to hold zero reserves is based on its financial model, which relies on income generation rather than building up reserves. This approach aligns with the charity's objectives and risk appetite, ensuring resources are actively utilised to fulfil its mission rather than being held in reserve.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	Given the absence of trading activity, there are no funds in deficit within the charity. All financial resources are managed in accordance with the charity's objectives and are allocated based on immediate needs and strategic priorities.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	The charity's financial stability is not contingent upon trading activity, and there are no uncertainties about its ability to continue as a going concern. While reserves are not held, the charity's operations are sustainable and supported by alternative revenue streams or funding sources as outlined in its financial strategy.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	The charity operates under a Constitution document, which outlines its objectives, governance structure, and operational guidelines. This document serves as the legal foundation for the charity's activities and is compliant with relevant regulatory requirements.
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	The charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), a legal structure specifically designed for charities in the United Kingdom. This provides the charity with limited liability and a separate legal identity, ensuring greater protection for its trustees and members.
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	Trustees are appointed in accordance with the charity's Constitution, which outlines specific procedures for trustee selection. This may include election to the post by members of the charity, appointment by existing trustees, or nomination by external bodies. The Constitution specifies the criteria for trustee eligibility and the process for filling trustee vacancies to ensure effective governance and leadership continuity.
