Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution adopted 2nd April 2019
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees must be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. There is no definitive time where they can be adopted.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object of the CIO is to promote and protect the physical and mental health of sufferers of mental health conditions up to and including the age of thirty-five in the United Kingdom through the provision of financial assistance, support, education and practical advice.

Due to the educational and work commitments of the trustees for the financial year 2021-2022 there was not activity that increased income or that was directly undertaken for the public benefit. Activity was dormant for this year.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Due to the educational and work commitments of the trustees for the financial year 2021-2022 there was not activity that increased income or that was directly undertaken for the public benefit. Activity was dormant for this year.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Cash in the bank as of 31/03/2022 is £2209 of unrestricted funds. With the charity having agreed to not provide grants until there is a minimum of £3000 of funds that can be dedicated towards a course of treatments, there is currently no financial risk. Current funds will not be granted until there is a reserve of £500 in excess of the minimum granted fund amount. There are currently no continuing operating costs, but this is to meet any unforeseen expenditure that may occur.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Not applicable.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

All funding has been via donation. The majority of these donations has come from fundraising and promotion of the Marathon event in the financial year 19/20.
