Aim

IM Life aims to relieve poverty through the of provision of food, basic hygiene supplies, education materials, training and guidance and other support with a particular focus on Sub-Saharan Africa, and especially in Cameroon, Liberia and Madagascar. IM Life is also active in the UK.

Activities

In order to achieve its aim, IM life undertakes direct action and also supports other relevant charities.

Achievements and Performance

In 2024, Irene Malin, Trustee and Founder, continued her slow but steady recovery from her 2023 severe and prolonged life-threatening perinatal medical episode. Given her central role in the charity, activity continued to be curtailed. Nevertheless, the charity held an event during the year aiming to raise funds and awareness. Looking to 2025, the charity plans to begin to scale up activity as the year progresses.

Samantha Malin joined the charity as Trustee in February 2024.

Financial Review

In 2024, although activity was very limited, the charity raised £2697 in cash donations and received £1250 donations in kind. The only material payment was catering costs of £2467 for the funding and awareness event. No charitable payments were disbursed to other charities, organisations or individuals due to the charity's limited activity in 2024.

Management and Administrative Information

IM Life can be reached at Ingress Abbey, Prioress Crescent, Greenhithe, Kent DA9 9UR. It has four trustees:

Irene Malin
Councillor Sue Butterfill
Dan Crawley
Samantha Malin

Approved by the IM Life Trustees on December 23rd, 2025 and signed on their behalf by Irene Malin, Trustee.

Activities

In order to achieve its aim, IM life undertakes direct action and also supports other relevant charities.

Achievements and Performance

In 2022, Covid-19 meant the charity was unable to undertake activity in the early part of the year. For the remainder of the year, the charity activity was minimal due to health issues of a key Trustee. At the end of 2022, the Trustees agreed to steadily increase the activities of the charity over the coming couple of years.

Financial Review

In 2022, although activity was very limited, the charity raised £150 in donations and £5 in miscellaneous income. £55 in minor expenses incurred by a Trustee were added to loan account. No funds were disbursed.
