Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 1 November 2021 to 31 October 2022

Charity name: Gwenddwr Carnival, Show and Sports

Charity registration number: 1182896

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The purpose of the charity is the advancement of agriculture for the public benefit by (i) the encouragement of skill and industry in agriculture and in allied trades, craft and professions connected with the rural economy, and (ii) the demonstration, exhibition and showing of livestock, crafts, products, methods and processes connected with agriculture and agricultural education.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The main activity of the charity is to hold an annual agricultural show.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	In preparing and carrying out the above activity, the Trustees have been aware of and acted according to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.
Ethos of the charity	Para 1.38	Everyone who contributes to the organisation and management of our annual Show, does so on a voluntary basis. As well as the Show Committee (which comprises nine members), local people always rally round to help as the day of the Show approaches, and on the day itself. This is significantly in keeping with the stated ethos of our charity, which is to promote community cohesion by (i) engaging and bringing together people from Gwenddwr and its surrounding area; (ii) supporting the local social and community infrastructure; (iii) developing links with local groups whose objectives are similar to our own.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	After a hiatus during lockdown – when Gwenddwr Show had to 'go online' – we were able to return to our traditional format on 30 July 2022. The day may not have been sunny but spirits were high and attendance seemed to have been boosted by the long wait. Some new activities for children and adults, added to the programme, were well-received. With bumper entry to most competitions, from sheep, pony and dog sections to craft, cookery, photography, flowers and horticultural classes in the marquee, feedback after the event indicated that the 2022 Show had returned to full strength and popularity in the local community and beyond.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Funds are markedly more healthy this year, with income exceeding outgoings. A single large donation made a significant difference to income.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The Trustees are conscious that all spending must be in line with the aims of the Charity. Some capital expenditure (tentage) has been considered but a decision has been deferred.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document	Para 1.25	The Governing document for Gwenddwr Carnival, Show and Sports is its constitution, formulated in January 2018, amended in April 2019, and kept under regular review.
How is the charity constituted?	Para 1.25	This is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation ('CIO').
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	The Committee of nine includes eight who are also Trustees, mostly willing volunteers who have been recruited to ensure that we can access a range of skills, experience and knowledge. Most (though not all) have farming connections, and all either live in, or have strong links with, the village of Gwenddwr and its surrounding area.

Annual report on Gwenddwr Show 2020-21

As in 2020, it was not possible to hold a Show in 2021. There was an online Show but enthusiasm was muted – everyone was looking forward to the end of the pandemic, and the possibility of meeting again at the real thing in 2022.

Sadly a number of our Vice-Presidents passed away and donations were made in their memory. One or two late donations and invoices came in to us but the accounts remained more or less flat. Because of the deteriorating financial situation nationally, as well as our changed status on becoming a charity, we cashed in our bond and the balance is now in our current account, pending amendments to our banking arrangements.

Gwenddwr Show's Facebook page has served throughout the pandemic as part of a network of local communication, advertising available services and help as well as activities to support people in their isolation. We look forward to happier days in 2022.

Annual report on Gwenddwr Show 2019-20

Though planning and preparations were well under way for the 2020 Show, towards the end of March it became clear that going ahead with the event would be unwise, if not illegal, and the Trustees were unanimous in an online vote to cancel. The decision was vindicated as the Covid pandemic took hold and restrictions on gatherings in Wales and across the UK were introduced for much of the year.

Vice-presidents and advertisers were notified promptly; those who had already paid or donated money mostly declined to claim it back, but little new income was received during this financial year. The outgoings were also minimal.

Gwenddwr Show did go ahead online, with many contributors sending photographs of animals, plants, crafts and cookery to our Facebook page, as well as literary efforts. The number of entries was overwhelming and producing and viewing them did much to raise everyone's spirits in the community.

Gwenddwr Show's Facebook page has also served throughout the pandemic as part of a network of local communication, advertising available services and help as well as activities to support people in their isolation.
