Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In 2024, we copordinated Refugee Week in Brighton & Hove once again. We coordinated events organised by other organisations to allow a single refugee week publicity across the city and we organised a film screening, jointly with the University. We also ran two sessions for local schools (free of charge). Alongside Refugee Week activity we picked up on our regular schools of sanctuary work, supporting activities in primary and secondary schools across the city. We also further contacts with the central library which became a Library of Sanctuary and hosted the main refugee week event. We were able to continue to employ a coordinator, Fatehullah Naserzai, for 2 days a week. He has lived experience of seeking sanctuary in the UK and is working extremely well, coordinating all of our activities and particularly engaging with refugee and community organisations in the city.

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In 2022, we were able to run a Refugee Week in Brighton & Hove for the first time in several years. We paid a professional group of actors to put on a play in a local church hall. Audience members made donations to the charity to cover the cost of the play. We also ran two sessions for local schools (free of charge). Alongside Refugee Week activity we picked up on our regular schools of sanctuary work, supporting activities in primary and secondary schools across the city. We also developed contacts with the central library.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In 2021 many of the regular activities carried out by the charity, such as the organisation of Refugee Week in Brighton, did not take place. The charity has continued to maintain a website, including up to date links for all local organisations providing support to refugees and asylum seekers. It also produced a regular (monthly) newsletter. These activities have provided a basis for information for the local community and some basis for orientation for newly arrived refugees.

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

	SORP reference
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	We depend on a network of short term and long term volunteers to carry out all activities.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In 2020 many of the regular activities carried out by the charity, such as the organisation of Refugee Week in Brighton, did not take place. The charity has continued to maintain a website, including up to date links for all local organisations providing support to refugees and asylum seekers. It also produced a regular (monthly) newsletter. These activities have provided a basis for information for the local community and some basis for orientation for newly arrived refugees.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	At the end of the financial period there was a positive balance of £8,393
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The balance is held to cover activities planned before new income
