

TRUSTEES REPORT FOR THE PERIOD 1st April 2022 – 31st March 2023

SECTION 1: PASTOR'S OVERVIEW

The past two annual reports have been impacted by Covid and the resulting lockdowns, and it is good to be able to start to see the ministry of the church settling down once again. That is not to say the challenges post lockdown are not significant because they are, however we have been encouraged as some new people have started attending. Our prayer is that in time, they will commit to formal membership and to serving in the local church and community.

We seek to be a church community that serves others in the way that Jesus served; both those within the church and in the wider community. This is because we desire to follow the example of Jesus as his followers today. We are so thankful for all the volunteers within the church who give of their time and resources to serve without whom we would be unable to do so much of what we do, and without whom we would be unable to be a benefit for our community.

As part of our ongoing self-evaluation, we are in the process of undertaking a church & community audit, headed up by Barry Cheesman. This is in order that we take stock of where we are as a church and also so that we are able to better identify the needs of our community and see how we can help. As part of this process, we have been speaking with key leaders, i.e. heads of local schools and GP practices to find out what they see are the biggest challenges facing those in our community. We will aim to have this process finished by the summer of 2023, and then re-evaluate our ministries to make sure we are being as effective as possible. Of course, at the same time, we believe that we need to be able to share the gospel of Jesus Christ as the foundation of all our ministries because we are not just a community help scheme, but a spiritual body who interacts with others practically, spiritually and compassionately.

We are blessed to have a good leadership team that works well and oversees as trustees of the church and charity. The leadership team engages in things from pastoral care; finances, building maintenance, and administration, through to our children's ministry leaders who organise and lead Sunday school.

During the year three of our trustees decided not to stand for another term of office. They are Sue Pratt, and Mervyn and Margaret Reynolds. We owe a huge debt of thanks to them for their service over many years, and we know they will continue to play an active role in the life of the fellowship.

I want to thank the church once again for their continued support and care over another year as I had time off due to surgery. Your friendship and fellowship in the gospel is such an encouragement.

Rev. Adrian Diaper.

SECTION 2: MINISTRY REPORT

The Bible exhorts us not to give up meeting together and we are aware how much we need to do this in order to be a vibrant Christian community in our own day and age. The main time when the church gathers is on a Sunday morning when we gather for worship and fellowship. This is a key focus of the church. We have continued to be encouraged and challenged by Pastor Adrian's ministry along with ministry from Barry Cheesman, Keith Ives and other visiting speakers.

The church is a family, and we try to engage as many of the different age ranges in the various ministries of the church as we can. It so encouraging to see how some of the children and young people engage in this too, they love to be a part of what is going on, even the bi-monthly prayer breakfast on a Sunday morning. We see the children as part of the church family and we seek to do all we can to encourage them, teach them and pastor them well.

One of our elders, Martin Jackson has also been on several trips abroad using his gifts as a doctor, helping remote African communities access healthcare which we see as an extension of the ministry of the local church.

Over the course of the last year, the preaching plan of the church has included series from Habakkuk, Philippians, Advent, The Lord's Prayer, and a thematic series called 'Six things God cannot do,' which reminded us that God cannot change or lie and so on, and therefore is able to do more than we can ever ask or imagine. We are encouraged to have had a baptism in the year as well.

The Sunday school follows the same teaching plan as the adults in main church, and we do this as we believe that this helps them develop and grow spiritually, and when the whole family comes to church, it is an ideal way for families to talk about how God has been speaking to them in the things they have learnt.

In the last twelve months, we have had opportunities to invite people to special church events such as the Harvest outreach with ex professional footballer Linvoy Primus, and a Men's fish and chip supper with Ian McDowall from Tough-Talk. There have also been events for children and families, such as special craft activities at Easter and Christmas as well as special services for families. It has been encouraging to see many people who do not normally come to church attending some of these events.

During the year we have continued to run the Pantry Project, and we are sure this project will continue to be a much-needed resource in the community. We have approached our local Morrisons supermarket for help with this, but to no avail. This means the project is still supplied solely by the generosity of those who come to the church. We know that those who receive the food boxes, either through the local school or by direct referrals, are so grateful.

The Foyer café continues twice a month and is used by people from the church as well as some in the community. During the winter we advertised the Foyer Café as a 'warm space' on our local council website as a way of helping those who were struggling to heat their homes.

Along with Sunday school, both Breakout and the Baby & Toddler group have continued well. The vast majority of children who come to these weekly events are not from church families but families in the community. It is encouraging to see how relationships are being fostered. There is also a youth club which attracts a small number of children in school yr 7 and above.

The church premises continue to be used mid-week by Rainbows and Brownies and a children's dance group.

Through all these different elements to the ministry of the church, we seek to live out our faith, being relevant and supporting our community in any way we can.

SECTION 3: GENERAL REPORT

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

As of 31st March 2023, we had 34 members, of which 26 are active (see Church Handbook).

In line with the Church Handbook, the following people's membership became 'inactive' under the rules concerning non-attendance.

- Barry Diedricks
- Lindie Diedricks
- Sian Clough
- Sue Moore
- Rosemary Bartholomew
- Dave Briggs
- Stef Briggs

The following were welcomed into membership during the year: None

The following were called home to be with the Lord during the year: None

CHURCH GOVERNANCE

The church is affiliated to the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches who provide a wide range of resources and helps.

The trustees of the church have continued to meet in accordance with the requirements of the church handbook. The meetings of the trustees are vital to the good governance of the church as a charity, and as such these meetings cover a wide variety of issues, from general governance, to finance and safeguarding, to how we might best engage with our community in meaningful ways, and of course also includes a time of prayer for the life and ministry of the church.

Our trustee meetings are usually in person, although there is provision in the church handbook for us to meet digitally if the need arises.

The trustees have revised and amended all the risk assessments and policies where necessary. These are available on the member's login area of the church website.

We are also undertaking a renewal of all our DBS checks to comply with our safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults.

- Governance documents and procedure: The church is governed by the church constitution and the church handbook. Subject to provisions of clause 13.4 and clause 13.2 of the church constitution, the charity trustees of the church are the persons appointed to the offices set out and in accordance with the church handbook.
- Data protection statement: The past year has shown full compliance with good data protection practices and there have been no data breaches.
- Public benefit statement: The past year has shown full compliance with the public benefit objects as laid out in the charity's framework held at the Charity Commission.

FINANCE AND BUILDING

We continue to be extremely grateful to God for the way he provides for us, and grateful to the church for their continued giving. It is a testimony to the reality of our faith that we know God to be giver of every good and perfect gift, and as He has blessed us, so we are able to contribute financially to the ministry of the church.

As part of our engagement with the community, we rent out the church hall for various community groups during the week, ranging from Rainbows and Brownies, to dance classes which also generates a small amount of income.

We continue to rent the manse to the family of one of the church trustees, and the extra income this provides is set aside for when we sense the time is right to either have a ministry trainee or call another pastor. While we do not want to simply hoard funds, our aim is to have good financial reserves in place for those unexpected costs, and also to be able to have at least one year's salary in place before looking for a second paid worker.

The general maintenance of the church and grounds has continued through the year, and we express our grateful thanks to Warwick Chipperfield, Mervyn Reynolds and John Massey for keeping the premises and grounds in good condition. Remedial work on the buildings has been carried out as and when needed, which included a professional lining for the guttering on the church hall to prevent water ingress.

MISSIONARY SUPPORT

We have continued to support the following missions and missionaries during the year, both with regular giving and through prayer:

- Alex and Marguerite, Elizabeth and Ben McCann (OMF in Cambodia).
- Mark and Jenny, Abigail and Naomi Beckwith (MAF in Australia).
- Penny Bakewell. (SIM team leader in Ghana). We were also able to fund a borehole in a Ghanaian village during the year. Along with special gifts from people in the church, one of the children in the church did a sponsored silence to help raise the money.

In addition, we had special offerings for SASRA (Remembrance Sunday) and Caring For Life (Harvest). 50% of our FIEC affiliation donation is taken from the Missionary Fund in recognition of the fact that FIEC is, at heart, a missionary movement.

This report, including the Annual Accounts, has been compiled by the Trustees to give an overview of the Church's ministry during the year and of the Church's financial position.

The Managing Trustees are the Church Officers (Pastor, Elders and Deacons).

During the year 1st April 2022 – 31st March 2023 they were (in alphabetical order):

Warwick Chipperfield – Buildings & Fabrics (Deacon)
