To promote the conservation, protection and improvement of the physical and natural environment in particular but not exclusively by:

- Providing grants to protect or assist in the protection of endangered, threatened or vulnerable species of wildlife or other fauna and flora in any country or countries in the world.
- Raising public awareness of the challenges facing endangered, threatened or vulnerable species of wildlife or other fauna and flora.

To be someone, somewhere, who does something to help. To make a difference to our planet to benefit all animals and mankind.

Charity Activities and Achievements:

WWS UK's Trustees are committed to its charitable aims complying with the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit and working on WWS UK's first endeavour to raise money for Asian elephants at Bannerghatta National Park in South India. To fund-raise and assist groups currently operating the projects for the Bannerghatta elephants and for their elephant care centre.

WWS UK held successful fund-raising events at the beginning of the financial year, from 1st December 2019 including an afternoon tea, a Women's Institute talk and merchandise sales, raising money to send jackets to the field staff caring for the elephant team at Bannerghatta National Park.

Due to Covid-19, all activities were paused from March 2020.

Contribution made by volunteers

WWS UK have a team of committed volunteers and we, The Trustees, are very grateful for the hours they dedicate to making merchandise and spreading the word actively in the voice of WWS UK. WWS UK would not be able to plan and achieve so much without their valuable contribution of time and expertise.
