Over the years they have performed at numerous cultural events and festivals across Merseyside as well as school assemblies which celebrate the Polish traditions, history, and festivals.

Financial review

The management of the school fund is an important responsibility of the Governing Body and Headteacher. The fund is held in the NatWest Bank and the accounts name is John Paul II Polish Saturday School in Liverpool.

School Fund: Year End 31 August 2024

Total income for the Year: £69,321.00

Total Expenditure: £72,113.00

Deficit for the Year: £2,792.00

The main principal source of funds for the charity in the report were the School Fees paid by the Parents (£41,732.00). People have been charged a reasonable amount to cover the cost of attending planned classes, and some of the events or activities.

The school has a 'Short-term Deposit Fund' under 'Cash Funds'. This fund consists of student textbook deposits, which are almost entirely refunded at the end of the school year. However, in cases where a textbook is lost or damaged, the unused portion of the deposit is retained by the school and may then be used at its discretion as 'unrestricted funds'.

Also, a £200 contribution from DNV (Services from DNV), a company where one of volunteers is employed and which has supported the school for many years, was received into the school's account on 16 July 2024. As these funds were not designated for a specific project and no further expenses related to the 2023/2024 school year were incurred after that date, the full amount will be carried forward as unrestricted funds to be used in the 2024/2025 financial year.

Annual school fees 2023/24:

- 1 child at school - £290.00 per year,
- 2 children at school - £460.00 per child per year,
- 3 children at school - £580.00 per child per year,
- 4 and more children at school - £760.00 per child per year.

During the Academic Year 2023/24, school received grants & donations from:

- Stowarzyszenie Wspólnota Polska (vol. 1): £3,850.00 (received on 07/12/2023)
- Fundacja WiD: £14,957.29 for purchase of computer equipment (received on 20/12/2023)
- Stowarzyszenie Wspólnota Polska (vol. 2): £5,875.65 (received on 21/05/2024)
- Konsulat - PHD 2024 workshoop Mr. W. Filaber: £600.00 (received on 03/06/2024)

Accountability – the process whereby individuals are responsible for their actions and decisions.

Governors are responsible for ensuring financial arrangements are operated in accordance with procedures specified by Financial Regulation for School.

The Governing Body aims to achieve best value for money from all its purchases.
