On 24 May 2019 it was granted registered charity status with the Charities Commission of England and Wales under Charity number: 1183590. At the point of incorporation fixtures and fitting, office equipment, cash and bank and in hand were passed on to the charity.

Objectives of the charity

We have always, and will continue to, take our responsibilities of ensuring that our charitable activities contribute significantly to the advancement of Islamic religion in accordance with the principles and tenets of the Shi'ah Ithna Ashari Muslim faith and for the benefit of the public in particularly but not exclusively by:

1. The advancement of education amongst the Muslim and Shi'a Ithna Ashari Muslim community
2. The provision of facilities in the interest of social welfare for the recreation and leisure time occupation for those who are in need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity, disablement, poverty, or social or economic circumstances, in order to improve their conditions of life.
3. To establish a Centre for Islamic services in the United Kingdom
4. Maintaining mosque functions to hold prayers
5. To perform and organise religious ceremonies or gatherings on births, marriages, death, divorce and similar occasions including conducting Islamic Civil Marriages and Divorces and to establish or support an alternative dispute resolution service (ADR)
Hosting lectures and visits
6. Celebrating Islamic festival

7. Providing Islamic funeral and other services required by the community
8. To enter into dialogue with other divine religions and to organise conferences and seminars to teach, lecture and disseminate the faith and moral values among Muslims and non-Muslims
9. To establish or support a library or libraries or digital library or libraries

The Mission will be an accessible and welcoming venue whilst delivering the above objectives.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The Mission is controlled by its governing documents, Memorandum and Articles of Association. The board of Trustees administer the Mission. The Trustees meet three times a year, and there are committees covering finance and Personnel. The trustees are responsible for setting general policy, finalising and approving the annual plan and budget, monitoring the Mission and taking major decisions about the strategic direction of the charity and any capital expenditure. The Trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or any other financial benefits.

A Principal Administrator is appointed by the Trustees to manage the day to day operations of the Mission. To facilitate effective operations, the Principal Administrator has delegated authority, within terms of delegation approved by the Trustees, for operational matters including finance, employment and performance related activity. The Principal Administrator give his time freely and receive no remuneration or any other financial benefits.

Risk Management

The Board of Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the Mission is exposed, in the those related to the operations and finances of the Mission. These risks are formally documented and regularly reviewed, and the Trustees are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate the Mission's exposure to significant risk. The Mission is also seeking to recruit additional Trustees so that our beneficiaries can benefit from further perspectives.

Achievements and Performance

The Mission has carried out a wide range of the activities in pursuance of its charitable aims including and not exclusive to the provision and delivery of:

- (i) In the first year of its incorporation, the Trustees have achieved and established a centre at 45 Westbury Road, Forest Gate, London. E7 8BU
- (ii) Regular prayers, weekly Jummah prayer & annual Eid prayers.
- (iii) Monthly and annual events and festivals including Muharram and Ramadan events;
- (iv) Secured and re-established the Azadari of Sayyid al Shuhada Hazrat Imam Hussian (as) in accordance with the precepts and tenets of Shi'ah Ithna Ashari Muslim faith and Ashoora Jaloos on 10 of Muharram on Romford Road
- (v) Funeral prayer and bereavement service.
- (vi) Islamic Studies education for males and females of all ages and in particular Bab ul Ilm School for children, where books and teaching is provided free of cost and a wide range of extra-curricular activities to supplement our Islamic schooling;

Trustee's Report

Statement of Trustees Responsibilities

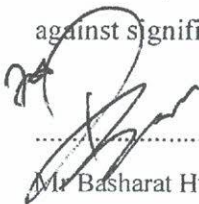

The Trustees are aware that Company Law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to.

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Observe the methods and principles of the charities SORP (FRS102).
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- State whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The charity's trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The charity's trustees are satisfied that the internal controls operated to safeguard the Charity's assets are appropriated to the nature and scale of the Charity's operations.

The charity's trustees have assessed risks affecting the Charity and believe that safeguards against significant risks are in place as far as practical.

Independent Examiner's Report for the year ended 30 June 2022

We report on the accounts for the year ended 30 June 2022, which are set out on pages eight to twelve.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees (the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

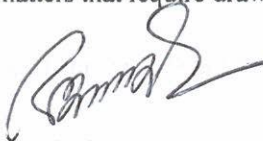

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, I have examined your charity's accounts as required under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under 145 (5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 or
2. That the accounts do not accord with those records or
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Company Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland; or
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) and (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
