Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote the wellbeing of newly diagnosed cancer patients.
To befriend newly diagnosed patients and support them through their medical treatment and their aftermath.
To educate the public and the medical profession about the emotional needs of those who have been newly diagnosed with cancer.
To offer wellbeing education around diet and exercise.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Buddy system – Volunteer buddies are assigned a newly diagnosed cancer patient to befriend. Buddy's accompany cancer patients to and from hospital appointments. Volunteer buddies deliver free meals once weekly to newly diagnosed cancer patients to support their physical and mental wellbeing. Volunteers prepare healthy nutritious meals for newly diagnosed patients that attend the community dinner sessions in a donated restaurant community building. Bonded Thru Cancer have delivered free support workshops (around diet and exercise) to volunteers, members of the medical profession, members of the public (who are associated with cancer patients) and newly diagnosed cancer patients. Public Benefit The primary utility (public benefit) is an increased rate of physical and mental wellbeing to newly diagnosed cancer patients and as a result an increased rate of coping mechanism. To reduce the symptoms of poor mental health and physical wellbeing whilst sustaining initial medical treatment. The community to receive this public benefit is newly diagnosed cancer patients, medical professionals, volunteers and members of the public that are in direct contact with newly diagnosed cancer patients. Evaluation An initial survey is given to newly diagnosed patients and family members about their mental health condition prior to workshop and at the completion of the workshop. As above surveys are given to all participants of the community dinner programme. The survey measures their feelings of contentedness, confidence; and outlook prior to eating their meal and after the meal.
