Changing Stars, Malawi

Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 31 August 2022

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 August 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Main objectives and activities

The Charity of Changing Stars, Malawi exists to facilitate the advancement of education of children in Malawi. This is done by engaging with local communities in Malawi, facilitating sponsorship of school fees and by providing and facilitating training of teachers, class room assistants and welfare organisations as well as providing education, resources and supplies.

The Trustees meet as necessary to review the Charity's finances.

The Trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Trust's aims and objectives and in planning future activities.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

The Charity had the following successes and achievements in the year :

1. Funding of school and nursery fees and uniforms for the academic year for 240 children.
2. The completion of three additional classrooms and a sports field for Chitsanzo school in Cape Maclear.
3. A bore hole to provide fresh clean running water for Chitsanzo school and its pupils.
4. The refurbishment of Thyolo nursery and provision of resources for pre-school education including phonics.
5. Training of teachers from Thyolo and Mango Tree nursery plus Chitsanzo school in phonics, positive behaviour management and reflective practice.
6. Updated Beit Cure hospital library (originally set up by the Charity in 2020).
7. Provision of clinical donations to Billy Riordan Clinic.
8. Provided sanitary wear to the Charity's sponsored teenage girls so they can attend school all year round.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The Charity received donations of £67,506 in the year and expenditure was £84,213, leaving surplus funds carried forward of £8,427 as at 31 August 2022.

FUTURE PLANS

The Charity's future plans are to continue to work with the community for what they need and request. This includes first aid training, provision of a defib for local clinic, following several drownings of young children (the Charity's sponsored children), continuing support for the Charity's sponsored children with school fees and uniforms, the provision of a learning community centre and library for Cape Maclear for additional lessons to be provided for children and adult literacy classes for the young women who fell pregnant and missed their education.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The Charity is controlled by its governing document, being the constitution for a charitable unincorporated organisation, as defined by the Charitable Incorporated Organisations Regulations 2012.. The CIO is registered as a charity with the Charity Commission (registered number 1183883) and is approved by the Inland Revenue Charity Division. The Charity qualifies for exemption from taxation under section 505 ICTA 1988.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The charity trustees shall manage the affairs of the CIO and may for that purpose exercise all the powers of the CIO.

Apart from the first charity trustees, every trustee must be appointed for a term of three years by a resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees.

In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Changing Stars, Malawi

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Changing Stars, Malawi

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Changing Stars, Malawi (the Trust) for the year ended 31 August 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has received it.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as they are paid. Expenditure is accounted for on a receipts and payments basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.
