The Trustees of Ruh Ministries present their Annual Report and the Financial Statements of the Charity for the year ended 30 June 2025.

1 Objectives

The objects of the CIO are:

To advance the Christian religion in Birmingham, for the benefit of the public mainly, but not exclusively, through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebrations of religious festivals, broadcasting and distributing literature on the Christian faith to enlighten others about the Christian religion.

2 Review of activities

Ruh Ministries relies on volunteers wholly and our charity is grateful to Jesus Christ foremost and for the efforts and the goodwill of our members who are involved in our church service and charity activities. We are pleased that our prayers have come to pass and in November 2024, the charity purchased a three-bedroom property mission house - praise be to God and thank you to the generosity of all those who gave financially.

Our aim is to raise the value of active participation of our church members in meaningful, inspirational, reverential prayer and spirituality with the belief that all belongs to God our Father and is our act of worship. We empower our local congregations and families who are predominantly from the Punjabi and Asian communities with varying backgrounds to have a good understanding of Christ's teaching and to be His followers.

Worship and Prayer

Our Sunday services are held in Punjabi & English which includes worship, prayer, preaching and teaching and is an integral part of our Sunday services with the leading of the Holy Spirit.

The worship styles are varied with traditional Punjabi and English songs but again we are always open to the leading of the Holy Spirit, as we seek to deepen our personal faith. We have been blessed to have new people join our worship team and there has been a steady increase of numbers in our congregation.

Meals - We provide lunch after Sunday service for our church. We acknowledge the importance of our Christian faith and lifestyle creates community harmony, as Jesus tells us to serve and to love thy neighbour.

Our prayer meetings are held on zoom on Wednesday, which includes the reading of the word and prayer for our families, communities and nations. On Friday at the mission house.

Bible Study – Held on alternate Fridays and is to teach the Word of God to the congregation.

Social Media - to send our recorded Sunday service and worship on social media, YouTube Tv channel and will be looking at revisiting Facebook.

We are committed to respond to Jesus' call of service to others and His instruction to love others as we love ourselves. We will continue to encourage meaningful social action service provision across our networking with Church of God of Prophecy church and strategically partner with other churches to bring hope to our communities.

We also provide financial aid to itinerant pastors who attend our church services. We believe that the donations received are for the glory of Kingdom of God and his people. The church continues to provide international aid to various projects in India particularly leprosy homes, mobile medical unit, orphanages and feeding the poor project.

Our long-term plan is do fundraising events to support the media ministry, film-making projects and help the poor in India.

Although, this year has proved to be far better year for the church financially, we still have many challenges along the way but our hope and faith is in Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour and He will deliver and bring success and increase to the church. Matthew 9:38 says "Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

The trustees wish to thank all our leaders, members, volunteers, families, friends and community for their continued support over the past year.

The Trustees of Ruh Ministries present their Annual Report and the Financial Statements of the Charity for the period 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2022.

1 Objectives

The objects of the CIO are:

To advance the Christian religion in Birmingham, for the benefit of the public mainly, but not exclusively, through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebrations of religious festivals, broadcasting and distributing literature on the Christian faith to enlighten others about the Christian religion.

2 Review of activities

Ruh Ministries relies on volunteers wholly and our charity is grateful for the the efforts and goodwill of those who are the involved in our church service and charity activities.

Worship and Prayer

We have been having prayer on zoom every Wednesday which includes bible study, worship and prayer.

We did not have a church in person fellowship due to government lockdown and covid regulations. The broadcasts were carried out at home and shared on social media. We want to continue to reach our communities with the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ; to be the salt to our families, towns, cities and nations.

We will continue towards encouraging our church to be reaching to the people in their language and culture. To raise the value of active participation of our church members in meaningful, inspirational and reverential prayer and spirituality disciplines with the belief that all belongs to God and is our act of worship.

We empower our local congregations and families in their role as the primary faith educators. Our Sunday services reconvened in October 2021 since the national lockdown in March 2020. Worship, prayer, preaching and teaching are an integral part of our Sunday services.

Despite lockdown and despite limited interaction we were able to reach some new people online. The church continues to provide benefit through international aid, Ukraine and Macedonia, We also provided funds to our missions projects in India, leprosy, orphanages and feeding the poor people of India.

Looking ahead, the majority of the content of the broadcast will be about the biblical messages and principles of a Christian faith and lifestyle, community harmony, wider social action programmes. All content will contain Christian faith material, health and well-being. We have attendees attending our Church predominantly from the southern Asians community with varying backgrounds.

We are in the early stages but the majority of the content of the broadcast will be about the biblical messages and principles of a Christian faith and lifestyle, this will include racial harmony, community harmony, feeding the poor, looking after those who are sick and wider social action programmes. All content will contain Christian faith material, health and well-being, clearly referenced and within broadcasting guidelines. We have attendees of about 25 regularly attending our Church, the community is predominantly Asians with varying backgrounds.

Evangelism: We have resources, tracts, invitations and encouraging and sharing our faith, as a gift from God and actively seek, recognize and act on opportunities to meet with our families, friends and others. We are committed to respond to Jesus' call of service to others and His instruction to love others as we love ourselves. We will continue to encourage meaningful social action service provision across our networking with Church of God of Prophecy church and strategically partner with other churches to bring hope to our communities.

Although, there have been many challenges as we are living in unprecedented times that we are all having to cope with but our hope and faith is in Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. The trustees wish to thank all our members, leaders, families and community for the continued support over the year.

2 Review of activities

Ruh Ministries began its Ministry in June 2019 having been previously known as Seek Kingdom Ministries with Equipment transferred to Ruh Ministries.

From July 2020, we have continued our mission of reaching through social media and Zoom, as we did not have a church in person fellowship due to government lockdown and covid regulations. During the last year we have been helping our mission projects in north and south India and Macedonia. During the start of 2021 we have started our Feeding the Poor project as part of Ruh Ministries' commitment to financial support to the orphans, poor families and widows.

As an organisation, we aim to deliver Christian TV programming in areas of education, drama and music. We are in early stages of doing this as we are training our members in the areas of worship and music and we want to ensure that we broadcast quality programmes. We currently have a YouTube channel and a Facebook account, we also use a WhatsApp group and this predominantly for our members and to other Christians who expressed an interest in listening to our programmes. The broadcasts are from our Sunday Service worship which we send out to the people and these are shared on social media.

We plan to build up a portfolio of programmes including:-

- Drama
- Young People Dance
- Education - Christian education and links with health and well-being

We are in the early stages but the majority of the content of the broadcast will be about the biblical messages and principles of a Christian faith and lifestyle, this will include racial harmony, community harmony, feeding the poor, looking after those who are sick and wider social action programmes.
