TRUSTEES' REPORT

The trustees submit their annual report and the financial statements of the Graceland Diabetes Foundation for the year ended 30 November 2024, The trustees confirm that the annual report and financial statements of the charity's governing document and the provision of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities issued in October 2006.

Method of appointment or election of trustees

The management of the charity is the responsibility of the trustees who are elected and co-opted under the term of the Trust deed.

Constitution policies and Objectives

The principal object of the charity is the advancement of diabetes awareness

There have been no change in the objectives since the last annual report.

Organisational Structure and decision –making

The Charity is organized so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs.

Volunteers

Graceland Diabetes Foundation is grateful for the efforts of its volunteers who are involved in service provision. It is estimated that over 500 volunteer hours were provided during the period. If this is conservatively valued at £12.21 the volunteer effort amounts to over £6,060. The Redeemed Christian Church of God ensures that best value is derived from the sterling efforts of its Volunteers.

Trustees' responsibilities

Law applicable to Charities in England/Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which gave a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity and of the surplus or deficit of the Charity for that period. In preparing those financial Statements the trustees have:

- Select suitable accounting policies and applied them consistently:
- Made judgment and estimates that are reasonable and prudent:
- Stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- Prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis (unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Trust will continue in operation).
- The trustees have overall responsibilities for ensuring that the charity has an appropriate system of controls, financial and otherwise. They are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2006.

- They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT TO GRACELAND DIABETES FOUNDATION

I report on the account of the Graceland Diabetes Foundation for the year ended 30 November 2024.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43 (2) of the Charities Act 2006 (the 2006 Act) does not apply. It is our responsibilities to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under Section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particulars matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanation from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidences that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

1. Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and
 - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met ; or
2. To which in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
