How our project impacts our community?

As a church, we are greatly concerned with the negative impact of the pandemic on people in our community.

We have been working together with support groups in the community like foodbanks, CAB, to support families through the pandemic. We do have families come to us for a variety of support while some families are referred to us.

We have met diverse needs of BME families in the community though at a limited capacity - because our major source of income is donation from church members.

We offer counselling session

We provide special food not available from the foodbank

We help retrain unemployed or people who have lost their jobs due to the pandemic and looking for a job or change of job, especially from the BME.

We offer training support to enable such people get the prerequisite or specialised training they need to make them suitable for the job they are applying for, e.g. mental health and social care workers.

We offer free e-DBS and provide reference to enable people get back to work.

We also work in partnership with foodbank who are aware of our services and refer people to us.

Achievement in the year

This financial year, we have built on our previous achievements and added several new initiatives to further support our community:

1. We continue to offer sewing classes at no cost, providing a flexible and relaxing environment that not only teaches valuable skills but also serves as a therapeutic outlet for social interaction and mental health benefits.
2. Our sewing sessions have become a vital means for alleviating loneliness and mental health issues by offering hands-on experiences that engage participants and enhance their lives through new skills.
3. We address the specific dietary needs of vulnerable families who rely on food banks, including those with dietary restrictions due to allergies to dairy, eggs, or nuts. We provide tailored food options that meet medical or cultural requirements, enhancing the standard offerings from food banks.
4. We have extended our support to more than 10 families, helping them obtain specific foods not typically provided by food banks.
5. In our Girls Brigade Group, we have empowered 10 young girls by training them to play musical instruments, fostering both personal growth and musical skills.
6. Our health and wellness initiatives have led to significant health improvements, with many individuals losing weight and adopting healthier lifestyles through our weekly fitness sessions.
7. We have strengthened our partnerships with three charities that aid the homeless, orphans, and widows, providing essential financial and material support, such as clothing.
8. New this year, we have initiated training programs for families from BME backgrounds who have recently relocated to the UK, helping them acquire necessary skills for employment.
9. We have conducted frequent seminars for newcomers to the UK on navigating the local systems, ensuring they integrate smoothly into their new environment.
10. Our job search assistance programs have been instrumental in guiding individuals on how to effectively search for jobs, complete applications, and receive training that maximizes their employment prospects.
11. We also introduced a pastor's surgery, offering personal consultations to discuss mental health, welfare needs, and other personal matters, providing one-on-one support to those in need.

Lastly, we have introduced drum lessons as a new avenue to engage young boys, further enriching our community support initiatives.

Together, these programs enhance our commitment to supporting and empowering our community members through diverse and crucial initiatives.

Public Benefit Statement

All our activities are accessible and open to the general public. Ministering every week to the spiritual needs of the people through bible study, prayer meetings, counselling. Our Church Services are presented with both the regular congregant and the visitor or seeker in mind. We minister to the physical, mental and spiritual needs of the members in our services giving specific consideration to the seekers or new comers in our midst who may not necessarily have a church background and as such may not understand the processes and procedures of Christianity.

Report of the Trustees for the accounting period ended 30th April 2023

Volunteers

Volunteers are at the heart of the Charity's activities and have consistently supported Charity.
The trustees acknowledge and greatly appreciate their contribution without which the charity could not operate successfully.

Future Plans

A piano class project will be starting soon. The trustees will continue to review the activities and structure of the charity to ensure that it operate to fulfill its Objects. Sunday service and other religious activities will continue to be at the core of what the Charity do.

Financial Review

The principal funding sources for the charity are from offering and tithes at its Church programmes. Incoming Resources - the total income for the period under review was £60564 and the total resources expended amounted to £44667 resulting in a net surplus of £15897.

Reserve and Investment Policy

It is the objective of the charity to ensure unrestrictd funds are kept at a level which provides sufficient funds to cover management, administration and support costs on an on-going basis. Based on the charity's size, the context of future plans, the level of our financial commitments and contractual obligations held. It's our policy to maintain unrestricted reserves of not less than equivalent of three months recurrent expenditure.

The Charity has a policy of keeping any surplus liquid fund in short-term deposits which can be readily be accessed and where the capital is protected. The objective of the investment policy is to maximise interest while limiting risk. This policy is adopted as the surplus funds are expected to be used in the near future to fund future commitment.

Risk Management

The Trustees have conducted a review of the major risks which the charity is exposed, in particular those to operations and finances of the charity. The Trustees review the risk regularly at their meetings and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate the Charity's exposure to major risks.

Appropriate DBS checks, supported by relevant training and regularly reviewed policies are made for all those who work with children or other vulnerable groups within the Charity. Where appropriate, systems have been established to mitigate the risk the Charity faces. Significant external risks to funding have led to the development of a strategic plan which will allow for the diversification of funding activities. Internal control risks are minimised by the implementation of procedures for authorisation of all transactions.

Responsibilities of the Trustees

Charity law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable trust as at the balance sheet date and of its incoming resources and applications of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees should follow best practice and :

- o Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- o Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- o Prepare the financial statements on the on going basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue on that basis.

Members of the Board of Trustees

Members of the Board of Trustees, and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the period and up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.

In accordance with charity law, as trustees, we certify that:
So far as we are aware, there is no relevant information of which the company's accountants are unaware; and as the trustees of the charity we have taken all steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the Charity's accountants are aware of that information.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Redeemed Christian Church of God throne of Grace

I report on the accounts of the above Charity for the Accounting period ended 30th April 2023 set out on pages 6 to 11

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The Trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("the 2006 Act"). The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this period under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- * examine the accounts under section 145 of the Act
- * to follow the procedures laid down in the general Direction given by the Charity commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- * to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; or
- the accounts do not accord with such records; or
- the accounts do not comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
