Dear Sirs

We confirm that the following information in connection with the financial statements for the year ended 31/03/2023 is to the best of our knowledge and belief true and fair, bearing in mind the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

1. General

To the best of our knowledge and belief all transactions undertaken by the charity have been properly reflected and recorded in the accounting records and these financial statements and all relevant records have been made available to you. We acknowledge that as directors and trustees, we have fulfilled our responsibilities under the Companies Act 2006 for making accurate representations to yourselves and for the accounts which you prepared for the charity.

2. Accounting Policies

The accounting policies used are detailed in the financial statements and are consistent with those adopted in the previous financial statements. We confirm that there have been no changes in the accounting policies other than those disclosed in the accounts. In our opinion, the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity and conform with generally accepted accounting principles. We confirm that all transactions and balances have been accounted for in accordance with these accounting policies.

3. Internal Controls

We acknowledge that it is our responsibility to design and implement a system of internal controls satisfactory to prevent and detect any error or fraud.

4. Fraudulent Activity

We confirm that we have considered the potential risk of fraudulent activities and that you have been made aware of any alleged, suspected or known fraud.

5. Statement of Financial Activities (SOFA)

Except as disclosed in the financial statements, the results for the year were not materially affected by:

- transactions of a sort not usually undertaken by the charity,
- circumstances of an exceptional or non-recurrent nature,
- charges or credits relating to prior periods, or
- any change in the basis of accounting.

Any expenditure included in the financial statements (where receipts or vouchers were not available) was properly made in connection with the carrying on of the charity's business, unless specifically notified to you as being of a private nature.

6. Fixed Assets

- The charity has a satisfactory title to all fixed assets included in the financial statements.
- No assets were scrapped when we moved premises during the year.
- The fixed assets to which the charity has satisfactory title are included in the financial statements.
- All amounts of expenditure capitalised in respect of fixed assets as detailed in the financial statements represent expenditure incurred in acquiring additional assets or improving existing assets. No expenditure capitalised is of a revenue nature.
- Depreciation has been provided on all fixed assets with a limited economic life in accordance with the stated accounting policy. In our opinion, the rates of depreciation are reasonable.

7. Stocks

We confirm that the charity held no stock and had no work in progress at 31/03/2023.

8. Debtors

Balances included in the financial statements are all valid debtors or prepayments.

9. Liabilities

We confirm that the charity had no liabilities or contingent liabilities other than those disclosed in the financial statements.

10. Capital & Lease Commitments

At 31/03/2023, there were no contracted for commitments for capital expenditure or new lease contracts.

11. Post Balance Sheet Events

No events have occurred (other than those already disclosed or included in the accounts) between the charity's year end and the date of this letter which could materially affect the financial statements.

12. Transactions With Directors and Trustees

The charity has had at no time during the year any arrangement or agreement to provide credit facilities (including loans, quasi-loans or credit transactions) for the Directors and Trustees nor to guarantee or provide security for such matters.

We confirm that during the year £4,325 was paid to trustee Michael Da Costa for support during his wife's sickness due to cancer and also for funeral arrangement support. These costs are included in gifts & donations in the statement of financial activities.

13. Laws And Regulations

We confirm that there are no laws or regulations (other than those discussed) that are central to the charity's ability to conduct its business.

14. Other Related Party Transactions

There were no other related party transactions during the financial year other than those disclosed in the accounts.

15. Going Concern

We confirm that having considered our expectations and intentions for the next twelve months and the availability of funds, the charity is a going concern.

16. Taxation

We confirm that as a charity, the charity is exempt from Corporation Tax.

17. Funds

We confirm that the analysis of closing funds as stated in the accounts accurately states the closing funds of the charity at 31/03/2023 and correctly splits them between unrestricted, restricted and designated funds.

Yours Faithfully

for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

To advance the Christian religion in the UK and other parts of the world for the benefit of the public through the provision of a place of worship, holding of prayer meetings, lectures and training courses, pastoral care and outreach work

New Nation Destiny Centre (NNDC)

Significant activities

As Trustees, when planning all activities to advance the Christian religion, we have the benefit of the public at the forefront of all we do to ensure the charity's objectives are achieved.

Where possible, online streaming is in place to reach people locally as well as nationally and internationally.

The main activities undertaken for the public benefit included:

Prayer and Fasting

Throughout the year the church has regular times of prayer meetings and annual start of the year times of fasting and focus for the year ahead. This is always a key start and focus to the year for the church as we set out our plans for the year ahead and put our plans in prayer.

The Cave

Group of men aged 18 and over meet to discuss life issues e.g. mental health, family, finance etc.

The Journey

Women's gathering for ages 16 and over teaching biblical scripture into everyday life and sharing life's journey.

Worship Night

'The Well,' an evening of Praise and Worship and sharing the gospel for all.

DYG Life Skills

A key part of the charity is to support young people in all aspects of life. The Destiny Youth Group has provided biblical study sessions, youth activities, social and wellbeing, life skills, financial skills and career advice and guidance.

DYA

Destiny Young Adults introduced to ensure the support relating to all aspects of life continues as the young adults mature.

EQUIPPED

A conference to train and equip people for the current climate.

Baptism

Opportunity for people to make a public declaration as they give their life to Christ Jesus.

Prophetic Shift

International one day gathering where the gospel was shared, and prophecies released for the future.

Children's Ministry Activities

NNDC takes pride in being able to support families and children in a weekly children's ministry program where children can learn, study and play in a safe environment. The children have participated in regular annual performances, Christmas plays and activities.

Building in the Spirit

As with all the church activities our weekly bible study groups are open to all to benefit from the studies and training to further the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Outreach:

Missions - Raffle and donations raised funds to actively support our international missions' connection in Makeni & Freetown, Sierra Leone by sending educational items for the school and clothing for families to Destiny International Worship Centre (DIWC) for young school children.

New Nation Destiny Centre (NNDC)

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Prayer Line - Cards produced with prayer line telephone number and distributed locally. The prayer line is monitored throughout the year.

Clothes/Coats - Donated to a local charity shop that supports the homeless and under privileged.

Blessed 2 Bless - Continue to provide support to a Birmingham charity to pack and distribute food to serve in the soup kitchen each Saturday.

Food Bank - Serving the local community with groceries on a fortnightly basis at no charge.

Men's Online Gathering - Not recorded to allow open and honest fellowship and support.

Contribution made by volunteers

All departments are led by volunteers who are trained or experienced for the roles and therefore carry out responsibilities to a professional standard.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Online gatherings and livestream has been a huge achievement resulting in the charity reaching more UK cities and countries and the search continues for larger premises for all the charity's activities.

With that said, the main activities undertaken for the public benefit during the financial year 1st April 2022 to 31st March 2023, the charity has achieved a greater online presence enabling the charity to reach more people than would ordinarily be reached.

The charity continues to host and deliver several online gatherings, training and conferences to the public including:

- Weekly Wednesday Bible Study
- Weekly Sunday service
- Weekly Saturday time of prayer
- Children's Ministry
- Equipped Training
- Men's fellowship
- Prophetic Shift conference
- Fund raising raffle
- Youth & Young Adults - Meet-ups

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The charity's total income for the year was £51,853 (2022 - £99,417). The charity's net expenditure for the year was £7,782 (2022 - net income of £37,452). At the year end, the charity had total funds carried forward of £54,244 (2022 - £62,026). All of the charity's funds are unrestricted.

Principal sources of funds

Primarily from tithes and offerings and third-party donations.

Reserves policy

NNDC does not have a reserves policy. The charity has a main treasurers account for the day-to-day management of charitable activities, a building fund account, a youth account, and conference account which are designated fund accounts and hold reserves if required to be used.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of
New Nation Destiny Centre (NNDC)

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of New Nation Destiny Centre (NNDC) ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Financial Statements
for the Year Ended 31 March 2023

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The presentation currency of the financial statements is the Pound Sterling (£) and the figures are rounded to the nearest round pound.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Equipment - 25% on cost

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Hire purchase and leasing commitments

Rentals paid under operating leases are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

The charitable company operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions payable to the charitable company's pension scheme are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate.
