Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Appointed by the trustees

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity has non-voting members, as provided for in its constitution, who join so as to support its work and be kept informed of developments.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The promotion of equality and diversity for the public benefit regarding the LGBT+ community, particularly but not exclusively among Methodists, by:

- (a) advancing education and raising awareness in equality and diversity
- (b) providing activities and information to foster understanding between people from diverse backgrounds and cultivate a sentiment in favour of equality and diversity;
- (c) the elimination of discrimination against LGBT+ people.

The year 2023/24 has seen the charity consolidating its activities and continuing to consider questions of future strategy. It has continued to advance its goals by the provision of information and guidance on its website (including a map of Methodist Churches registered for same-sex marriage) and by making available grants to cover the cost of registering churches for same-sex marriages.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Continuing to develop the map of churches registered for same-sex marriages and to support them through the provision of small grants covering the registration fee.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees have considered the need for reserves. At present, the charity does not have ongoing liabilities (eg staff costs) and is in a strong financial position. The trustees will keep the fund balances under review, mindful that the funds are there to be used in furtherance of the objects.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity raises the majority of its funds by donations from non-voting members and supporters. The trustees work on the basis that all future income will be from donations and any charges made for events.

The majority of the charity's expenditure has been on the charity's key objectives around awareness, education and advocacy.
