Objectives and activities

The Justin Fashanu Foundation exists to tackle homophobia in sport, promote equality and inclusion for LGBTQ+ people, and support young people in achieving their potential regardless of background or identity.

Achievements and performance

Although no income or expenditure occurred during the year, the charity continued to work towards its aims through advocacy, awareness, and volunteer engagement.

Financial review

The charity received no income and incurred no expenditure during the reporting period. No reserves are held at year-end.

Reserves policy

The trustees aim to maintain sufficient funds to support future charitable activities once income generation resumes.

Plans for future periods

The charity intends to continue its mission of promoting inclusion and tackling discrimination in sport by seeking partnerships and funding opportunities in the coming year.

Structure, governance and management

The charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) and is governed by its constitution adopted in 2019. Trustees meet as required to oversee operations and compliance with Charity Commission regulations.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and the Charities SORP (FRS 102).
