Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	The charity was established as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation by a governing document dated 7 August 2019.
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees are appointed by the Parochial Church Council of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist, Blackheath, by the Officers of the 2nd West Kent (Blackheath) Company of the Boys Brigade, and by the Committee of the Blackheath Old Boys Brigade Association. The Incumbent of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist, Blackheath, will be a Trustee for as long as they hold that office. In selecting individuals for appointment as trustees, regard is given to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the charity.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity has an induction process for new trustees.
Trustees are not remunerated and no expenses were paid on their behalf.

The CIO has been set up to replace the following charity ST JOHN'S (BLACKHEATH) WAR MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION
Charity number: 276745.

Risk management

The trustees have reviewed all the major risks including operational and business risks, which the charity might face and confirm that they have established systems to mitigate those that are significant. The adequacy of the reserves policy is reviewed annually.

The Trustees have reviewed the risks associated with the Covid-19 global pandemic and the national restrictions in place.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are: to receive and maintain premises, known as the boys brigade hall, as a memorial to the men of the parish of St John the Evangelist, Blackheath, who gave their lives in the great war, for the use and benefit of:

(a) primarily, the 2nd west Kent (Blackheath) boys brigade and girls' association, who object is the advancement of Christ's kingdom and the promotion of habits of obedience, reverence, discipline, self-respect, and all that tends towards a true Christian life among people aged between 5 and 18 of the parish of St John the Evangelist, Blackheath and surrounding areas

(b) the inhabitants of the parish of St John the Evangelist, Blackheath and the surrounding area for the recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship or social and economic circumstances or for the public at large in the interests of social welfare and with the object of improving the condition of life of the said inhabitants.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity was incorporated on 7 August 2019. The activities of the charity have been delayed first due to Covid, and now a delay in the property transfer.

These activities are as follows:

What the charity does:

- General Charitable Purposes
- Religious Activities
- Recreation

Who the charity helps:

- Children/young People
- Elderly/old People
- Other Charities Or Voluntary Bodies
- Other Defined Groups
- The General Public/mankind

How the charity helps:

- Provides Buildings/facilities/open Space
- Provides Services

The Trustees have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission. When planning the activities for the period the Trustees have considered the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The CIO has not yet replaced the original charity of the same name due to the transfer of assets yet to be transferred, this has been a challenging and lengthy process as one of the original trustees registered with the Land registry doesn't have capacity to sign the transfer due to having dementia.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees consider that the charity's reserves and income streams will be adequate to meet its day-to-day expenditure and any designated funds. For this reason, the trustees do not plan a minimum level of reserves to be maintained.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

No funds are in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The income and expenditure for the period under review were both £nil. The income received in the forthcoming year will be used on charitable activities.

Section F

Other optional information

The trustees are working with the Charity Commission and legal advisors to organise the transfer of assets to the CIO.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

Independent
examiner's statement

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
