The Mintingmor Trust AGM

Held on 13th October 2025 at 12.30am

Present: Peter and Carolyn Rimmington, Susan Rimmington

Absentees/apologies: None

The Mintingmor Trust is a registered charity with charity number 1184906.
Registered Address: Browne Jacobson LLP, Mowbray House, Castle Meadow Road, Nottingham, NG2 1BJ.

Trustees: Peter Anthony Rimmington, Carolyn Rimmington, Susan Mary Rimmington

The Mintingmor Trust is set up for the following charitable purposes to benefit primarily, but not exclusively, people and places in Teesdale in order to:-

- Improve the social, educational and environmental situation of those living and/or working in Teesdale and the surrounding areas; and
- Preserving, conserving and enhancing the flora and fauna and the accessibility of the area through local registered charities such as Durham Wildlife Trust

By providing financial support and assistance to charities seeking to address these charitable causes. The Mintingmor Trust does not have a minimum grant size but the majority of our grants will fall under £1,000.

Financial Review

Total income year was £2177.60 contributed by the Trustees.

Contributions totalling £1950.00 were donated to UTASS, Teesdale Luncheon Clubs, Weardale and Teesdale Mountain Rescue, in accordance with the Trust's policy.

Trustee expenses were restricted to costs associated with the website subscriptions (£177.60) and £tbc for accountants fees because new software is required by HMRC to submit accounts online.

The retained fund is £1236.41

Financial Report is attached.

Structure, governance and management

There were no changes made in this financial year. A HMRC Corporation tax return was made to comply with the regulations

Financial statement

The Financial Statement was approved at the AGM and signed by the Trustees Peter Anthony Rimmington and Carolyn Rimmington.

Assets are all held in cash in the Trust's bank account.

There are no liabilities
