TRUST IN CHRIST MISSION

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and UK Accounting Standards.

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Society and of the incoming resources and application of resources for that period.

In preparing the accounts the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles of the charities SORP
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue its activities.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Society and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charity Act 1993, the Charity (Accounts and Report) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Society and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

TRUST IN CHRIST MISSION

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the report and accounts in accordance with applicable law and UK Accounting Standards.

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Society and of the incoming resources and application of resources for that period.

In preparing the accounts the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles of the charities SORP
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue its activities.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Society and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charity Act 1993, the Charity (Accounts and Report) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Society and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Trustees' Report for the year ended 5 May 2021

The trustees of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the period from 20 August 2019 to 5 May 2020. The trustees have adopted the provisions of the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities' issued in March 2005.

Structure, governance and management

Governing Document

The Charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and a constitution.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

The Charity is governed by its Board of Trustees as named on page 1.

The trust deed provides for the appointment of future trustees by resolution passed at a special meeting of the existing trustees. The trust deed does not require the trustees to retire by rotation.

Trustee induction and training

The Charity is aware of the need to ensure that all trustees are adequately trained and are aware of their responsibility. Where required the trustees are provided with written guidance to make them aware of their responsibilities and to prepare them to discharge their duties to achieve the Charity's objectives.

Objectives and activities for the public benefit

Objectives

The overall purpose of the charity is the advancement of the Christian faith.

- To advance the christian religion in Leeds and the surrounding areas for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures public celebration of religious restivals.
 - producing and/or distributing literature on Christianity to enlighten others about the Christian religion.
 - Spiritual Counselling to members and support for expectant mothers.
 - Any other charitable purpose for the benefit of the local community.
 - The Trustees seek to achieve the charity's charitable objectives by maintaining a centre of worship and fellowship and by reaching out to the local and wider communities.
- We provide weekly Sunday services for adults and children, regular midweek for teaching and
- training, mentoring and coaching.

Significant Activities

When planning our activities for the year, the Trustees have considered the Commissions guidance on the public benefit in particular the specific guidance on charities for the advancement of religion.

Weekly Services

During the year we conducted weekly services to meet the objectives of the organisation. These services are aimed at our members and the general public, including children and young people, adults and the elderly.

Achievement and performance

Charitable Activities

The church organises regular worship service for its members and these services are open to the general public. These activities include weekly Sunday school for adults and children, Bible study, Prayer meetings and Sunday worship serices.

Other activities include special program for community get together such as Harwest Celebrations, Barbeque etc. The chuch opens up these programs to the public especially the community where it operates.

Financial Review

Reserve Policy

The trustees would like to work towards maintaining unrestricted funds at a level which equates approximateley three months of unrestricted expenditure.
