Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Boxing Club has again further excelled and achieved. The Club has successfully boxed internationally over in Sweden at the prestigious Golden Girls Tournament and also in Denmark. The Club has also helped support all of its members to successfully box all over the country up to National Level. The Club has further developed with building improvements and also now successfully running 2 x Home Shows that helps generate further monies so that we can further invest in providing greater opportunities to all. The Club as a whole is in a greater more advanced position then it was in the previous year and our Aim is to ensure that this again is further improved next year.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

With on-going support from the local council and raising monies from Home Shows, we have been able to improve our building and equipment's. We do not hold reserve outside of money to cover bills as any money goes straight out covering events, fuel, food, and our members competing both home and abroad in all areas needed.

Details of any funds materially in deficit
