Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) in Sri Lanka, by all or any of the following means:

- monitoring abuses of human rights;
- obtaining redress for the victims of human rights abuse;
- relieving need among the victims of human rights abuse;
- research into human rights issues;
- educating the public about human rights;
- providing technical advice to government and others on human rights matters;
- contributing to the sound administration of human rights law;

- commenting on proposed human rights legislation;
- raising awareness of human rights issues;
- promoting public support for human rights;
- promoting respect for human rights among individuals and corporations;
- international advocacy of human rights;
- eliminating infringements of human rights;
- providing charitable financial and technical support for Sri Lankan organisations who also have similar objectives.

During the period of this report, the activities have focussed on raising fund to support core activities of the Nadesan Centre and the Civil Rights Movement in Sri Lanka.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)
