Management Committee's Report
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 AUGUST 2025

Objectives and activities

The objectives of the charity are:

To advance the Sikh religion in South Yorkshire for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebration of religious festivals and to enlighten others about the Sikh religion.

Statement on Public Benefit

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Charity Commission in exercising their powers or duties. The public benefits of the charity's activities are outlined under 'Objectives and activities' above.

Achievements and Performance

Since the impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic Gurdwaras across the country have seen a significant change in the way congregations attend and participate in worship. Enhancements in technology have always contributed to a trend of online workshops and ceremonies which were previously unavailable. Although this has its benefits it is still affecting operations and the congregation has yet to reach the numbers previously held. Charity operations were limited for periods of this financial year, however, several 3 day religious programs were successfully held where attendees travelled from different parts of the country to participate.

Members of management committee

The members who are also directors for the purpose of company law are set out on the company information page. The management committee also certify that all the relevant information have been provided to the examiner, which management is aware of.

Responsibilities of the management committee

Company law requires the management committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charitable company at the balance sheet date and of incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure for the financial period.

In preparation of such statements, the management committee should follow best practice and:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is not appropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis.

The management committee is responsible to keep adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The management committee is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence are taking reasonable steps for the prevention of fraud and other irregularities.

The report is prepared in accordance with recommended practice: accounting and reporting by charities and also in accordance with Companies Act 2006.

Management Committee's Report

Objectives and activities

The objectives of the charity are:

To advance the Sikh religion in South Yorkshire for the benefit of the public through the holding of prayer meetings, lectures, public celebration of religious festivals and to enlighten others about the Sikh religion.

Statement on Public Benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit published by the Charity Commission in exercising their powers or duties. The public benefits of the charity's activities are outlined under 'Objectives and activities' above.

Achievements and Performance

The impact of the Covid-19 Pandemic is still affecting operations and the congregation has yet to reach the numbers previously held. Charity operations were limited for periods of this financial year, however, several 3 day religious programs were successfully held where attendees traveled from different parts of the country to participate.

Members of management committee

The members who are also directors for the purpose of company law are set out on the company information page. The management committee also certify that all the relevant information have been provided to the examiner, which management is aware of.

Responsibilities of the management committee

Company law requires the management committee to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charitable company at the balance sheet date and of incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure for the financial period.

In preparation of such statements, the management committee should follow best practice and:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is not appropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis.

The management committee is responsible to keep adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The management committee is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention of fraud and other irregularities.

The report is prepared in accordance with recommended practice: accounting and reporting by charities and also in accordance with Companies Act 2006.

Approved by the management committee
