

Curiosity Sussex
(A registered CIO)

Report and Financial Statements
Year ending 30 April 2023

Charity number 1185269

Report of the trustees for the year ending 30 April 2022

The trustees are pleased to present their annual report together with the consolidated financial statements of the CIO for the year ending 30 April 2023 which are also prepared to meet the requirements for a Trustee's Report and Accounts for the Charity Commission.

Chair's Report

Unfortunately, the lingering effects of the COVID-19 pandemic have made it impossible once again to organise any events in 2022/23.

I would like to thank our supporters, volunteers, trustees and the public for their support in making our work possible.

Dr Stephen Wilkins
Chair

Our Purpose

The objects of the CIO are:

For the public benefit, promote learning for pleasure by people of all ages across Sussex in such ways as the charity trustees think fit, including but not limited to:

- a. Produce live events that enable diverse audiences across Sussex to participate in informal STEM (science, technology, engineering, maths) learning;
- b. Enable and promote local STEM events, through online promotion and logistical support;
- c. Invite local people to contribute their knowledge and interests, celebrating and exploring their curiosity while fostering understanding between people from diverse backgrounds.

Our Activities & Projects

None

Financial Review

The CIO ended its first financial period with a positive balance. No new sources of funding were required, with principle expenses being on website maintenance.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

Curiosity Sussex is a CIO governed by its Constitution dated 11 September 2019. It is registered with the Charity Commission.

Appointment of trustees

Katy Petherick resigned as Trustee on 7 December 2022, due to relocation outside of Sussex. We thank her for her contributions to Curiosity Sussex.

Trustee induction and training

There has not been a requirement to hold a trustee induction since the charity's formation, as there has been no turnover of trustees.

Organisation

The board of four trustees administers the charity. The board meets at least quarterly, with sub-committees covering individual activities/events. The board has a Chair of trustees who coordinates the board and charity operations.

Related parties

None of our trustees receive remuneration or other benefit from their work with the charity. Any connection between a trustee or senior manager of the charity with a contracted company must be disclosed to the full board of trustees in the same way as any other contractual relationship with a related party. In the current year no such related party transactions were reported.

Risk management

The trustees have a risk management strategy which is focussed on individual activity/event risks

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

By order of the trustees
