Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the reporting period the school in Hanover, Jamaica who were the beneficiaries of the first shipment made since the Abigail Fitzgerald Foundation became a registered charity remained mainly closed with children learning remotely. With these adjustments it was not practicable to send shipments to the school, nor to access other schools in the region to send shipments to as they also remained closed for the most part during the reporting period. Trustees have remained in close contact with the school to understand their emerging and ongoing needs in order to see where the charity could identify how best to fulfil the objects once schoolchildren returned to the classrooms.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	To 31 May 2021 there was no active fundraising to generate income, no income and no expenditure.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity is reviewing a policy on holding reserves to gauge the right level for its requirements, giving assurance of active financial management and sustainable activities.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	Since schools closed in the region that the charity ships items to following the global pandemic, no further shipments were made and no fundraising was undertaken. This has been the case for the duration that government lockdown restrictions were in place and schools were closed and close contact remained in place to understand the requirements of the school children. With pupils returning to schools, the charity can resume fundraising activities and arrange to ship provisions to assist the children.
