Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity ended the financial year with total assets of £1,513.12, in cash with no debt. These cash levels are appropriate for KCC to remain financially viable.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	KCC has no formal policy on holding cash reserves. Due to the low levels of recurring expenditure, zero debt and the discretionary nature of the main activity (providing grants), liquidity is maintained by restricting grants to available cash at any point in time.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Minimum bank balance in 2022 of £227.93
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	N/A
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	There are no concerns about the charity continuing as a going concern.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The charity's principal source of funds is from donations, with reliance on a core group of dedicated long-term donors. A limited number of fundraising campaigns are carried out through social media
		N/A

Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The principal risk facing the charity is lack of financial continuity, due to donors discontinuing their funding activities. If this were to occur, the level of grants the charity provides would need to be scaled back. The main mitigation is to broaden the range of donors.

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document (trust deed, royal charter)	Para 1.25	Kokrobite Chiltern Centre Constitution, dated 26 August 2019
How is the charity constituted? (e.g unincorporated association, CIO)	Para 1.25	Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)
Trustee selection methods including details of any constitutional provisions e.g. election to post or name of any person or body entitled to appoint one or more trustees	Para 1.25	Trustees are appointed and reviewed during KCC trustees meetings, held every month. Future trustees are invited to become a trustee by one of the existing trustees and/or by the individual volunteering to become a trustee, following which they are interviewed and confirmed if acceptable.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees	Para 1.51	On joining, all trustees are provided with a copy of the Constitution and a copy of the latest Annual Report and Accounts. Access is provided to the shared drive with previous minutes of meeting and the action log with pending issues.
The charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works	Para 1.51	The charity has a board of trustees with an appointed chairperson. In addition to overseeing the activities of the charity, the trustees provide guidance to KCC Ghana (sister charity).
Relationship with any related parties	Para 1.51	KCC Ghana is a sister charity that receives the bulk of donations from the charity. 2 trustees of the charity are executive members of KCC Ghana.
