Structure, governance and management

Legal status

Lights Up is a charitable incorporated organisation, charity number 1185341 which was registered on 16th September 2019.

The Trustees have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Objects of the Charity

The objects of the charity are to promote social inclusion for the public benefit by working with young people who are socially excluded on the grounds of their disability and/or financial hardship, by providing access to amateur theatre performances

Lights Up provide the tool kit and funding to enable community groups and charities to attend fringe theatre performances

Trustees' Report

We are pleased to present our annual report and accounts.

Lights Up was recently formed to formalise the donation activities of a private family trust furthering the promotion of fringe theatre to new and deserving audience members, and facilitating a scaling up of this activity.

The operational plan for the Charity, once the central systems and fund-raising platforms were established, is to create autonomous regional chapters, responsible for their own fund-raising, networking with suitable fringe, amateur and youth theatre productions, and the delivery and hosting of subsidised or complimentary events to more diverse audiences. This would link the benefits of seeing live arts at a local level with fresh visitors.

Shortly after the registration of the Charity the pandemic struck, not only closing theatres but casting doubt on the purpose, activities and solvency of many arts and community charities – many intended to be part of the Lights Up network. Generally, our intended ticket recipients require a high degree of planning to book seats, and we seek to include vulnerable persons who would ordinarily not venture to the theatre.

Our formation could not have happened at a worse time for the theatres or audiences though, underscoring the precise need for our intended dual purpose of funding complimentary seats to future events. Unfortunately, additional pandemic variants and the nature of fringe, local, amateur and youth theatre made it impossible for the Charity to commit funds confidently or extensively until theatres were back in use with a higher degree of certainty.

Whilst financially largely dormant during the period, our recruitment of regional chapters did not start until the period under review and therefore physical progress in infrastructure has not been made, however local groups have been supported.

In order to guarantee the solvency of the Charity during this difficult time, and to cover general and marketing expenses due as have arisen during the year, and continue to arise, the revolving interest-free credit facility in favour of the charity limited to £10,000. This remains in place. It is intended that this facility together with pending grant funding, will enable the development of a self-sufficient cashless audience donation mechanism. The term and limit of this facility has been extended.

Trustee Recruitment. Mr Blaskey, who was instrumental in forming the charity as retired and a Trustee Recruitment process in place to replace him, and one of the other Trustees.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year, and of the incoming resources and application of resources for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to :

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently ;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent ;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed ; and
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are also responsible for ensuring that the charity has appropriate systems of internal control across the organisation. They are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy, at any time, the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements follow best practice. They are further responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The systems of internal control are designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, reassurance against material misstatement of loss. Internal control processes implemented by the trustees include :

- Agreement of policy and service development objectives by trustees ;
- Regular consideration by the trustees of financial results including variance from budgets and forecasts ;
- Delegation of authority to appropriate levels of management ; and
- Identification and management of risk.

The Trustees' Report was approved and was signed on behalf of the Trustees by:

Trustees' Report
For the year ended 31 March 2023

This planned roll out is now underway and our networks are being built. Faced with the complexities and uncertainties of rising costs, it has been fed back to us that the tickets we gave away in the final quarter of 2023 were of immense value to both recipients and societies.

I would also like to thank one of our founding trustees on his retirement and our plans for the roll out now include the recruitment of external trustees.

I am also pleased to report that our corporate fund-raising scheme has started to bear fruit and partnerships formed in 2022/23 are expected to begin to feature in accounts from 2024.

Shortly after the registration of the Charity the pandemic struck, not only closing theatres but casting doubt on the purpose, activities and solvency of many arts and community charities – many intended to be part of the Lights Up network. Whilst financially largely dormant during the period, our recruitment of regional chapters remains underway and a ticket matching scheme has enabled the charity to utilise its resource and contacts without making financial commitments that would not meet the objects of the charity due to either shows being cancelled or risking the wellbeing of our intended recipients.

In order to guarantee the solvency of the Charity during this difficult time, and to cover general and marketing expenses due as have arisen during the year, and continue to arise, the revolving interest-free credit facility in favour of the charity limited to £10,000 remains in place. It is intended that this facility together with pending grant funding, will enable the development of a self-sufficient cashless audience donation mechanism.

I hope to deliver better news to our supporters now the pandemic has subsided and local theatres re-opened. With the cost-of-living crisis now stretching the resource of regular theatre goers, our donors, and intended ticket recipients, the objects of the charity and alignment with community arts could never be more relevant.

I am also pleased to report that our corporate fund-raising scheme has started to bear fruit and partnerships formed in 2022 are expected to begin to feature in accounts from 2024.

Lights Up is a charitable incorporated organisation, charity number 1185341 which was registered on 16th September 2019.

The Trustees have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Objects of the Charity

The objects of the charity are to promote social inclusion for the public benefit by working with young people who are socially excluded on the grounds of their disability and/or financial hardship, by providing access to amateur theatre performances

Lights Up provide the tool kit and funding to enable community groups and charities to attend fringe theatre performances

Trustees' Report

We are pleased to present our annual report and accounts.

Lights Up was formed to formalise the donation activities of a private family trust furthering the promotion of fringe theatre to new and deserving audience members, and facilitating a scaling up of this activity.

The operational plan for the Charity, once the central systems and fund-raising platforms were established, is to create autonomous regional chapters, responsible for their own fund-raising, networking with suitable fringe, amateur and youth theatre productions, and the delivery and hosting of subsidised or complimentary events to more diverse audiences. This would link the benefits of seeing live arts at a local level with fresh visitors.

Shortly after the registration of the Charity the pandemic struck, not only closing theatres but casting doubt on the purpose, activities and solvency of many arts and community charities – many intended to be part of the Lights Up network. Thus, whilst the Trustees were able to build the centralised fund-raising platforms, no significant ticket distributions were able to be made during this reporting period

Our formation could not have happened at a worse time for the theatres or audiences though, underscoring the precise need for our intended dual purpose of funding complimentary seats to future events. Unfortunately, prolonged pandemic and the nature of fringe, local, amateur and youth theatre made it impossible for the Charity to commit funds or extensively fundraise until theatres were back in use with a higher degree of certainty which has extended into our full second year.

As an alternate temporary purpose, and in order to test our new fundraising platforms, Lights Up was able to promote, and grant funds to the Equity UK Benevolent Fund – with a contribution towards much needed income for out-of-work actors affected by the pandemic. This accounts for the income and grants made in our accounts

Sadly, the pandemic continued into our second year of operating as a Charity. This second year was again re-purposed to devote to the creation of our regional chapters ensuring that as fringe productions return in 2022 and beyond, our network of volunteers is in place to deliver our intended roll-out. This action will preserve our resources, and sets the Charity up to deliver its original objects from year 3.

Whilst financially largely dormant during the period, fund-raising systems and platforms are now ready for rollout and our recruitment of regional chapters is underway and team of virtual office volunteers.

In order to guarantee the solvency of the Charity during this difficult time, and to cover expenses due as have arisen during the year, and continue to arise, I have put in place a personal revolving interest-free credit facility in favour of the charity limited to £10,000.

I hope to deliver better news to our supporters as the pandemic subsides and local theatres re-open.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year, and of the incoming resources and application of resources for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to :

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently ;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent ;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed ; and
- Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are also responsible for ensuring that the charity has appropriate systems of internal control across the organisation. They are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy, at any time, the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements follow best practice. They are further responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The systems of internal control are designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, reassurance against material misstatement of loss. Internal control processes implemented by the trustees include :

- Agreement of policy and service development objectives by trustees ;
- Regular consideration by the trustees of financial results including variance from budgets and forecasts ;
- Delegation of authority to appropriate levels of management ; and
- Identification and management of risk.

Structure, governance and managementLegal status

Lights Up is a charitable incorporated organisation, charity number 1185341 which was registered on 16th September 2019.

The Trustees have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

Objects of the Charity

The objects of the charity are to promote social inclusion for the public benefit by working with young people who are socially excluded on the grounds of their disability and/or financial hardship, by providing access to amateur theatre performances

Lights Up provide the tool kit and funding to enable community groups and charities to attend fringe theatre performances

Trustees' Report
For the period ended 31 March 2020

We are pleased to present our first annual report and accounts.

Lights Up was formed to formalise the donation activities of a private family trust furthering the promotion of fringe theatre to new and deserving audience members, and facilitating a scaling up of this activity.

The operational plan for the Charity, once the central systems and fund-raising platforms were established, is to create autonomous regional chapters, responsible for their own fund-raising, networking with suitable fringe, amateur and youth theatre productions, and the delivery and hosting of subsidised or complimentary events to more diverse audiences. This would link the benefits of seeing live arts at a local level with fresh visitors.

Our formation could not have happened at a worse time for the theatres or audiences though, underscoring the precise need for our intended dual purpose of funding complimentary seats to future events.

Shortly after the registration of the Charity the pandemic struck, not only closing theatres but casting doubt on the purpose, activities and solvency of many arts charities, theatres and community groups – all intended to be part of the Lights Up network. Thus, whilst the Trustees were able to commence building the centralised fund-raising platforms, no further tickets were able to be purchased or distributed during this reporting period and it was felt that the recruitment of our volunteers was premature.

As an alternate temporary purpose, and in order to test our new fundraising platforms, Lights Up was able to promote, and grant funds to the Equity UK Benevolent Fund – with a contribution towards much needed income for out-of-work actors affected by the pandemic. This partly accounts for the income and grants made in our accounts, and will be spread over our first two reporting periods.

Sadly, the pandemic continued into our second period of operating as a Charity and this year has now been re-purposed to further devote to the creation of our regional chapters ensuring that as fringe productions return in 2022 and beyond, our network of volunteers is in place to deliver our intended roll-out. This action will preserve our resources, and set the Charity up to deliver its original objects from year 3.
