Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity has achieved some of its aims during this period by bringing happiness to the lives of individuals and families affected by albinism. Some of the achievements include conducting multiple virtual zoom sessions during the COVID-19 pandemic to connect communities. The Voice of Albinism also participated in community support by distributing cooked and uncooked food packages to families during the pandemic and providing one-on-one support to parents with newborn babies with albinism on how to care for their children. The charity has also provided support to parents of children with albinism through one-on-one telephone chats, offering guidance on how to care for and maintain their newborn's sensitive skin. New relocated patient reached out to voice of albinism to met with other patient with children of albinism in the community.
