Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	CIO
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Selection by existing trustees in accordance with rules defined in the Constitution.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

New trustees will be provided with a copy of the Constitution and of the latest Trustees Annual Report, and will be fully briefed by existing trustees as well as attending meetings as necessary.

The trustees aim to meet at least monthly where decisions are made by majority voting, and are formally recorded in minutes. Financial expenditure is authorised by two trustees.

There are no relationships between the charity and other parties.

The trustees have a vigorous Safeguarding Policy, and also have a Health & Safety Policy for protecting church members.

Remuneration is paid to Rev Philip de Grey-Warter the Chair of Trustees in relation to his work as rector; in the year this totalled £27,000. Mrs. Naomi de Grey-Warter is also employed part time, and her salary for the year was £10,121-50.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To enhance the orthodox Anglican Christian faith, for the public benefit, primarily within Fowey and the surrounding neighbourhood; and such other charitable purposes as shall put into practice the Christian faith, including the prevention and relief of need, hardship and sickness, the advancement of education; and the provision of facilities in the interest of social welfare for those who have need because of their youth, age infirmity, financial hardship or other social circumstances.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

To advance the orthodox Anglican Evangelical Christian faith, for the public benefit, in accordance with the Statement of Belief and Practice primarily, but not exclusively, within Fowey and the surrounding area.

The Anchor gathers weekly as church for corporate worship, prayer and Bible exposition. These gatherings are open to all and publicised through our website and social media, as well as personal invitation.

We met on Sundays in the Gallants Sailing Club.

All meetings have been recorded for use by others. Average attendance has been 60, augmented by those on line.

Bible study groups involving up to 30 people have continued.

Such other charitable purposes as shall, in the opinion of the charity trustees, put into practice the Christian faith in accordance with the Statement of Belief and Practice, including but not limited to: the prevention and relief of need, hardship and sickness; the advancement of education; and the provision of facilities in the interest of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need for such facilities for the reason of their youth, age, infirmity, financial hardship or other social circumstances with the object of improving their conditions of life; provided that the advancement of such purposes are consistent with the Statement of Belief and Practice as may be adapted or amended by the CIO from time to time.

Partners at the Anchor are encouraged to live out their faith in generous and sacrificial service. This includes support for the lonely, elderly and sick by visits and telephone calls. We estimate over 500 such calls during the year. The Rector conducted 8 funerals during the year, supporting those families through their bereavement. Other pastoral care has included marriage support for couples experiencing difficulties in their relationships and support for parents, especially through "Little Anchors" for parents and carers with pre-school children. Our Youth Worker is seconded to Fowey River Academy to run a school farm project supporting disadvantaged & disaffected pupils.

The trustees have regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

The charity employs three paid staff, the Rector and his wife and a Youth worker. They are supported by some 50 others who offer their assistance with a variety of tasks on a voluntary basis.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has continued to develop the church in its fourth year, making good progress with the tasks involved.

The main activities of the church are summarised in Section C.

The following grants were made to charitable institutions during the year:

£3,255 to the Diocese of Tabora in Tanzania, our partners, for support of their Christian activities.

£500 to Open Doors in support of Christians worldwide.

£500 to Faith in Kids in support of their Christian work and in recognition of their assistance to us.

£500 to Gafcon Global

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees have set aside a sum of £12,000 in reserve, equivalent to three months expenditure.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of funding is charity members themselves supported by contributions from other bodies who support the charity. The charity does not engage in fundraising activities. The trustees are required to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Trust. In preparing those financial statements the trustees are required to select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently and make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent. The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Trust. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Trust and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Anchor Anglican Church Fowey

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Anchor Anglican Church Fowey

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of Anchor Anglican Church Fowey for the period ended 30th September 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- 1 accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- 2 the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- 3 the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
