- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Induction and training of trustees are ongoing.

Our charity is independent organisation and strives to form collaborative partnerships with charitable organisations with similar objective

Risks: There are always risks in maintaining our charity. If we fail to raise funds through donations risks are very high in managing the charity. The risk register is maintained to minimize risks on a short-term and long-term basis.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Buddhist faith in Liverpool for the public benefit. Mainly but not exclusively by support in meditation and mindfulness classes and religious education

Conduct religious activities, and celebrate cultural events of Sri Lankan heritage, support and guide mindfulness and meditation. Most importantly, teaching of Lord Buddha

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Policy on grant-making- No grant-making activities investment, currently no plan for the investment
Volunteer contribution: A large part of our income is generated through volunteer contribution and plate collection

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
