Objectives and achievements.

Our aims for 22/23 were to reach out through the network of music teachers to encourage them to approach us where they identify developing musical talent and financial need then we can commence granting awards under the terms of the constitution. While this aim is correct, we have struggled to achieve that this year. As we go forward, we intend to use social media more to reach out to the needy. The pandemic has abated and the public are now cautiously venturing out and therefore fund-raising concerts are becoming more viable. However, the current economic crisis in the country has resulted in the public having less disposable income to support charities.

In the year we have had three requests which resulted in two grants being awarded.

Grants were awarded to assist: -

- One students' attendance at a specialise music summer school.
- Contribution towards a marimba purchase

Our PHPA Adams xylophone and the vibraphone remain fully committed to free loans to music students to enable them to reinforce and extend their learning at home.

We were supported by Wells Cathedral School who organised a fund-raising concert for the charity with our charities Principal Artistic Supporter percussion soloist Dame Evelyn Glennie in attendance.
