

Lifegivers Trust (UK)

Report of the trustees for the year to 31st August 2025

Charity number 1186252

Lifegivers Trust (UK) is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO)

Registered office: 1 Old Barn Court, Bircher, Leominster, HR6 0AU

Trustees:

Oliver Elphick
Ruth Elphick
Pamela Blakey

Objects

The object of the Trust is to relieve poverty and to advance the Christian religion by the education of children and young people, in particular, but not exclusively, through the provision of grants to Lifegivers Children's Home in Andhra Pradesh, India.

However, no grants are made to any other body unless, in the trustees' opinion, the Lifegivers Children's Home already has sufficient for its current needs.

Activities

The Trust receives donations and passes them on to the Lifegivers Children's Home in their entirety, apart from minimal necessary expenses. Gift Aid is also recovered. The money enables the Home to buy food, clothing and educational materials for the boys in their care.

There has been no change in the charity's activities this year.

Financial Review

All income was transferred monthly to the Lifegivers Home.

The Trust has no need of any reserves and maintains only a minimal permanent balance at the bank (less than £10). The Trust makes no investments and holds no property.

There are no dedicated funds.
