Report of the Trustees for the period ending 31 December 2023

The Trustees present their annual report and financial statements of the charity for the year ending 31 December 2023. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the relevant accounting policies and Charities Act 2011 Section 132.

Objectives and Activities

The objects of the trust are to:

- i. Relieve sickness, old age and poverty,
- ii. To advance the Christian faith by but not limited to, the provision of homes, refuges, rest homes and community homes primarily but not exclusively for retired Christian workers and persons in need, engaged in Christian ministry or in training for Christian ministry and Christian work.

The CIO has ownership of two properties in South East London. Both properties were owned by a founding Trustee, Beryl Woodley of the former Trust. The rents received from these properties are used as an outworking of the objectives and for furtherance of the objects. The CIO does not engage in active fundraising. The rent on both properties is substantially below that of a market level rent. From 2019 33.33% of one of the properties was sold to the tenant on a shared ownership basis.

During the year grants were issued to support rent payments of Christian workers to the value of £4,000. Grant applications are considered and agreed by the Trustees.

Structure, Governance and Management

The organisation was incorporated on 11 November 2019 as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation to replace the unincorporated Trust of the same name. The current Trustees were all appointed in November 2019 and give their time freely and no Trustee remuneration was paid. Trustees are changed when required on the retirement of a Trustee. Trustees meet formerly once a year but communicate regularly via electronic format to make decisions during the year. Administration of the CIO and management of the properties and tenants is carried out by the Secretary as part of her duties as the Operations Manager of Mission Housing Ltd. No management fee or remuneration is paid for this time, which is considered as a gift by Mission Housing to The Inasmuch Trust.

Risk Management

The Trustees are aware of the major risks to which the CIO is exposed. These include the catastrophic loss or damage to a property or a long-term void. Refurbishment of both properties has been undertaken in recent years to minimise major maintenance in the next few years. Rent levels currently more than cover the regular maintenance costs, even though they are at a low level.

Reserves Policy

Reserves are maintained to cover work to the properties and no major expenditure is made to the properties without the careful consideration of the Trustees. Surveys are undertaken on a quinquennial basis to put together a planned maintenance programme to ensure there are sufficient reserves. Both properties are also visited annually.

Current and Future Plans

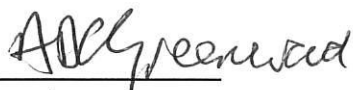

The Trust works alongside Mission Housing Ltd and the CIO assets provide grants to those who need in support in meeting rent payments and who meet the objects of the Trust. This can be as a one-off payment or regular smaller sums for a set period. The Trustees will also consider other activities that could benefit from grants in keeping with the objects being mindful of the changing financial situation.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S UNQUALIFIED REPORT

CIO (ACCOUNTS PREPARED ON A RECEIPTS AND PAYMENTS BASIS)

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Inasmuch Trust

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Inasmuch Trust ('the charity') for the year ending 31 December 2023 which comprise the summary of receipts and payments and the statement of assets and liabilities.

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

An independent examination does not involve gathering all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently does not cover all the matters that an auditor considers in giving their opinion on the accounts. The planning and conduct of an audit goes beyond the limited assurance that an independent examination can provide. Consequently I express no audit opinion on the accounts and my report is limited to those specific matters set out in the independent examiner's statement.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
