

The BHPA Foundation

Annual report and Accounts.

The foundation received one donation of £750 and has made no payments or expenditures in the accounting year. This was in part due to significant issues, now resolved, with accessing our bank account.

Although the Charity has been largely inactive this last year we anticipated this as a long term project and the trustees are hopeful of making some more meaningful progress in the next year.

W Bell

Chair