Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object of the CIO is to develop the village hall for the use and enjoyment of the inhabitants of Burmington, Willington and Tidmington, without distinction of sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, nationality, race, political, religious or other opinions, including the use of the property for meetings, lectures and classes or other forms of recreation and leisure time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the said inhabitants.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The main activities consist of recreation for all groups. Burmington Village Hall is available for private hire as well as public events, activities and gatherings.

The purpose of these activities is the advancement of community development with a benefit to the public.

Burmington Village Hall is a charity with the purpose of providing a community centre for the benefit of the inhabitants of the three villages and surrounding area.

The trustees have carried out the charity's purposes for the public benefit and confirm that, in doing so, we have had regard to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance where relevant.

The trustees advise action that all trustees fulfil their legal duty to refresh and read again the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission when exercising any powers or duty.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity organised a number of fundraising events to encourage the residents of the local communities to meet and socialise.

The fundraising events consisted of coffee mornings, breakfasts, suppers, a table top sale and competitions, as well as celebrating Queen Elizabeth II's platinum jubilee.

These events were well publicised in the local area to encourage a wider attendance, not just limited to the three villages.

The hall was also available for private hire and provides a venue for the Parochial Church Council and the Parish Councils/Meetings to meet.

Section EFinancial review
