Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Our online teachings and regular programmes are great proofs that the public benefitted. The church had more online followers and many also contacted us for counselling and proper guidance, in line with the principal purpose of the church. In addition to the above, the charity now meets on site and carries out activities that brings community together, especially parents, where we share ideas and opinion on how to support our children better. This is called Family Community Network. The Charity also started a Digital Training programme for residents, online and on site. We also started A Befriending and Wellbeing Support Service (Free Community Support) During the year, WOSIB Ministries Worldwide delivered a Befriending and Wellbeing Support Service to help reduce loneliness and isolation within our local community. The service provided regular phone check-ins and planned home visits (where safe and appropriate) to elderly and isolated adults, offering companionship, emotional support and encouragement.

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity was better off financially this year than previous years. The charity's plan on how to raise funds is still in place to help us with our community driven initiatives and public benefits.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	At World Outreach Saviour International Bible Ministries Worldwide (WOSIB Ministries Worldwide), we maintain reserves as a vital part of our financial strategy to ensure the long-term sustainability and stability of the organization. These reserves are held to: 1.Ensure Financial Stability: Reserves provide a financial cushion that enables us to continue our operations during periods of unexpected financial shortfalls or economic downturns. This ensures that we can continue to fulfil our mission and support the communities we serve without interruption. 2.Meet Emergency Needs: In case of unforeseen events or emergencies, such as natural disasters or urgent community needs, the reserves allow us to respond swiftly and effectively, providing immediate support and assistance. 3.Support Long-Term Projects: Reserves enable us to plan for future projects, expansions, and initiatives, ensuring that we can invest in our mission and sustain growth over time. 4.Maintain Operational Continuity: The reserves also help us manage cash flow gaps between income and expenditure,

		ensuring that there is sufficient funding to cover ongoing operational costs such as staff salaries, utilities, and essential services. At WOSIB Ministries Worldwide, we believe that maintaining reserves is a prudent financial practice that supports our stewardship responsibilities and helps us honour our commitment to the communities we serve.

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The church and the trustees recognised that success cannot be measured only by financial or material things but also by less tangible things like encouragement, moral support, fellowship, and many others. Our online teachings and regular programmes are great proofs that the public benefitted. The church had more online followers and many also contacted us for counselling and proper guidance, in line with the principal purpose of the church. In addition to the above, the charity now meets on site and carries out activities that brings community together, especially parents, where we share ideas and opinion on how to support our children better. As a charity, we support the society by reaching out to the elderly in developing countries like Nigeria, giving them some welfare packages.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The church and the trustees recognised that success cannot be measured only by financial or material things but also by less tangible things like encouragement, moral support, fellowship, and many others. Although the pandemic affected our outreach programmes adversely, the church recognises that so many souls and lives changed positively. Our online teachings and regular programmes are great proofs that the public benefitted. The church had more online followers and many also contacted us for counselling and proper guidance, in line with the principal purpose of the church.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41

Investment performance against objectives	Para 1.41
Other

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The church did not raise any fund during this period. The COVID-19 Pandemic was a major cause, but the trustee believe that a more positive outcome will take place. The charity has set out plans on how to raise funds to meet up with our purposes, especially on the issue of public benefit.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	No reserves held at the moment.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22
