Littlehempston Community Orchard & Meadow CIO – Annual Report 2024

During the course of 2024 a number of activities took place which support the charity's aims to preserve this old orchard, provide an environment which supports a range of wildlife and to provide a space which our community can use and enjoy. As well as workdays, we ran a Wassail and community apple pressing day. These events generated a small amount of income over and above covering the costs incurred in putting them on.

We have established an annual maintenance programme of mowing, brushcutting and hedge work.

Littlehempston Community Orchard & Meadow CIO – Annual Report 2023

During the course of 2023 a number of activities took place which support the charity's aims to preserve this old orchard, provide an environment which supports a range of wildlife and to provide a space which our community can use and enjoy. We were able to run a Wassail in January, having taken a break for 2 years during the pandemic. We also ran our first community apple pressing day in September. These events generated a small amount of income over and above covering the costs incurred in putting them on.

We have established an annual maintenance programme of mowing, brushcutting and hedge work. In addition to this we did need to pay for dead trees to be felled. We also paid for earthworks to make the orchard more accessible and usable for social events.

- Tree planting - new apple trees were planted to ensure the orchard continues to provide apples once the older trees have died out
- Maintenance - the majority of expenditure was on maintenance, to ensure our community can safely access and enjoy the orchard
- Events - we hosted our first community apple pressing day in September, which was very well attended

No income was generated by the charity during of the year.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the CIO are the advancement of citizenship or community development by holding, conserving and protecting land for the benefit of the inhabitants of Littlehempston with the object of improving the conditions of life of the said inhabitants.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The CIO primarily holds, conserves and protects land in Littlehempston for the benefit of the people of Littlehempston.
The land will be accessible all year round for general public enjoyment. On occasions only by prior approval, will the land be available for private use.

The land is made up of a meadow, stream banks and historic orchard. The River Hems runs along one side and Gatcombe to the other side of the site which sits in the middle of the village of Littlehempston, Totnes, South Hams, Devon.

Evidence of the historic orchard has been found on OS maps dated from 1903, though it is thought, it could be date back to as far back as 1886. It needs to be replanted in part and maintained as it has been neglected, with the objective of bringing it back to its former status as a productive Devon cider (apple) orchard.

The land has been purchased for the benefit and enjoyment of the community of Littlehempston.

The project will benefit and bring the community together. It will engender biodiversity, training and education in rural skills, promote well-being and community togetherness by acting as a venue for festivities throughout the year. The land is open to all, including local interest groups and schools for leisure and/or educational purposes.

In running the CIO in this way, the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on Public Benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

In 2021 as the country started to open up, the 'land' saw more activity generally.

We established a relationship with Orchard Link, an organisation in South Devon which gives advice and support to help save traditional orchards. With their help we replaced a number of dead trees, improved the health of others and generally increased our knowledge of orchard management.

Pandemic restrictions still played their part in curtailing many activities but the 5 year strategic plan was started and developments for it happened digitally and remotely.

The end of the year did see the chance for the Wassail event to take place, which brought the community together after a long while.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity aims to hold enough reserves to support the day to day cash flow in order to maintain and preserve the land.
The charity also aims to build reserves in order to replant the site and maintain it where it has been neglected.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The key income of the charity is through donations.
The charity also hopes to access grants as there will be a community benefit.
In 2021 the 'land' played host to a number of community working days where members of the community worked on the land. It was a year that saw the return of the Wassail on the land which paid for itself through donations.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Littlehempston Community Orchard and Meadow CIO ('the CIO')

I report on the receipts and payments account and statement of assets and liabilities of the CIO for the period ended 31 December 2021 which are set out on pages 8 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees of the CIO you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act

have not been met; or

- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The land is made up of a meadow, stream banks and historic orchard. The River Hems runs along one side and Gatcombe to the other side of the site which sits in the middle of the village of Littlehempston, Totnes, South Hams, Devon.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

2020 was a very quiet year for the Littlehempston Community Meadow and Orchard, because we were just in our infancy, and the annual plan and 5 year strategy was not completed prior to the start of the Covid -19 pandemic.

Our main activities were around ensuring the space and land were safe for public enjoyment. This was done through the limited public activities permitted at certain times. They included bramble clearance, tree felling, fence and gate repairs and generally keeping on top of unwanted growth (as that didn't seem to observe the lockdowns).

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity aims to hold enough reserves to support the day to day cash flow in order to maintain and preserve the land.
The charity also aims to build reserves in order to replant the site and maintain it where it has been neglected.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The key income of the charity is through donations.
The charity also hopes to access grants as there will be a community benefit.
In 2020 the establishment and possibility of any fund-raising activities was curtailed by the Covid-19 pandemic.

Other optional information

Due to restrictions arising from the Covid-19 Pandemic, expenditure was settled by Nicola Rajska, Trustee, and subsequently reimbursed to her.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Littlehempston Community Orchard and Meadow CIO ('the CIO')

I report on the receipts and payments account and statement of assets and liabilities of the CIO for the period ended 31 December 2020 which are set out on pages 8 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees of the CIO you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

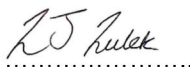

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act

have not been met; or

- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
