Objectives

Our aims, as set out in our constitution are:

To advance the Christian religion by raising awareness of religious beliefs and practices for the public benefit, by providing education and training amongst church communities.

Our objectives and activities are set to reflect our aims. Our core objectives are:

1. To provide excellent coaching, training and resources for Christians in order for them to learn about, and experience, listening prayer and prophecy.
2. To support churches as they seek to develop a healthy and biblical prophetic culture.

As we continue to work towards these objectives we are developing a growing network of Christians who are being strengthened in their faith and who are better equipped to make their local communities places of peace, justice and reconciliation.

Activities and Achievements

The charity carries out a wide range of activities in pursuance of its charitable aims. The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, in particular the specific guidance on the advancement of religion, and consider that these activities, summarised below, provide benefit, both to church members and the wider community.

Coaching

Our main training vehicle continues to be our coaching huddles. These are online cohorts of up to 6 people. Most huddles last one year and follow an in-depth curriculum. We offer Year 1, Year 2, and Year 3 huddles.

We currently have more than 40 trained Accessible Prophecy coaches in 9 countries, with more people waiting to be trained. Our coaches are working across many different denominations. We offer ongoing support to our coaches through regular 'coaching catch-up' Zoom calls.

We are able to provide free or subsidised coaching to individuals who otherwise would not be able to afford the training.

We also offer shorter-term training cohorts focused on:

- Leadership Coaching on Prophetic Culture
- The Prophetic Call to Social Justice
- Prophetic Art: Listening & Creating
- Discerning Together: equipping church leadership teams in decision making
- Holy Disruption: Harnessing the Prophetic to Shape a More Christlike Church (based on Catherine Livesey's book Holy Disruption).

We have also started a coaching cohort for Malaysian business leaders and a coaching cohort for Anglican bishops.

A testimony from the Prophetic Art course:

I can very much recommend joining a prophetic art cohort. I needed to join with other people who had experience in connecting art and being a Christian in a sound and biblical way. The teaching is high quality, down-to-earth and relaxed. It has been well prepared and is easy to apply in everyday life. It has been a blessing for me to get to know the people running the coaching and learn from their experience.

A Testimony from a huddle participant:

I was so pleased that I accepted the opportunity to be part of an Accessible Prophecy huddle and the very rich learning experience that came from being part of a group of folks who were keen to grow in the prophetic. Our huddle coach was just the right person to take us on this journey: her love of God, her passion for the prophetic ministry and her desire to help each of us in the huddle to grow spiritually obvious. We were loved, encouraged and stretched. We laughed, prayed, practiced, discussed, explored, felt safe to be real with our doubts and questions and gradually grew in confidence. This experience has been a wonderful gift.

Workshops/Conferences/Webinars

We are delighted to have had the opportunity for a number of in-person events alongside online workshops and webinars. We have been able to offer these events as a means of resourcing people, churches and networks.

In July 2024 Catherine Livesey had the opportunity to visit Denmark, speaking and leading workshops at the 'Danish Oases' summer camp in Jutland. This visit was also an opportunity to invest in our Danish team, spending valuable time with the team members.

In March 2025 Catherine Livesey visited Adelaide and Melbourne, Australia, to deliver a number of training events. This included the second National Gathering for AP Australasia, as well as opportunity to invest in the Australian team.

As a team we are very clear on our shared ethos and training objectives, so wherever in the world people are accessing Accessible Prophecy events they will be getting the same high-quality teaching.

Regional Teams

We have regional teams established in:

- The UK & Ireland
- The United States
- Canada
- Denmark
- The Netherlands
- The Balkans
- Australia
- New Zealand
- Malaysia

The CEO provides ongoing support, vision, and direction to the team leaders through regular calls and huddles.

In July 2024 we held a three day 'Global Gathering' for our team leaders in Sheffield. This was a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the work of Accessible Prophecy across the globe, build relationships, invest in our key people and facilitate strategic planning.

In April 2025 we held an online 'Community of Practice' for all our teams.

We run a monthly 'catch-up' call for team leaders on Zoom.

Content

One of our priorities is to provide churches with excellent resources for spiritual development.

The book My Sheep Have Ears is our primary resource and continues to receive great feedback. It has been translated into Dutch and Serbian. We also have the Prophetic Lifestyle Course available.

Catherine Livesey's book Holy Disruption: Harnessing the Prophetic to Shape a More Christlike Church came out in September 2022 and continues to receive excellent reviews.

We have a podcast: The Prophecy Project, hosted by Chris Wanstall and Andrew Hill in Australia.

We also run the 'Accessible Prophecy Network' – an online community (free of charge) for huddle alumni and other people who have been through our training. Each month we explore a different theme and post videos, prayer exercises and discussion questions. The Network provides a great way for people to stay connected with our work and deepen their faith journey.

Our finances

The Receipts and Payments account shows receipts of £17,913 and payments of £15,139. We also carried forward £21,236 from the previous year. This will be retained to ensure a reliable cashflow into next year.

Our principal source of funds are our coaching huddles.

Structure, governance and management

The method of appointment of trustees is set out in the Accessible Prophecy CIO constitution.

The trustees meet four times a year. Steve McMurray is the chair.

The charity has two employees. Catherine Livesey is the CEO, responsible for leadership of the central team, the coaches and content production. Carolyn Kinsman is the accounts manager.

Catherine Livesey and her husband StJohn Livesey are trustees of Accessible Prophecy CIO. As set out in the constitution, they are a minority of the trustees and are absent during discussions of her terms of employment.

Summary

Accessible Prophecy CIO has continued a steady expansion and consolidation of its work in nine regions around the world. We remain focused on providing excellent coaching, training and resources for Christians, alongside supporting churches as they seek to develop a healthy and biblical prophetic culture. We look forward to continuing our work next year.

This year we have run a successful year-long training cohort for church leaders based on Catherine Livesey's book Holy Disruption.

We have also run a 6-session coaching huddle for a group of Jewish trainee rabbis.

Workshops/Conferences/Webinars

We are delighted to have had the opportunity for a number of in-person events alongside online workshops and webinars. We have been able to offer these events as a means of resourcing people, churches and networks, including the Salvation Army, New Wine Ireland, the Synergy group of churches, and The Filling Station.

In September 2023 Catherine Livesey had the opportunity to visit South Africa, spending time with the Anglican diocese of Cape Town and then speaking at the "Anglicans Ablaze" conference in Johannesburg. Following on from this she ran an online 6-session coaching huddle for a small group of South African church leaders.

In March 2024 we organised a series of training events in Australia, New Zealand and Malaysia led by Catherine Livesey and Christine Wanstall. This included the first National Gathering for AP Australasia and training opportunities for business leaders in Kuala Lumpur.

A brief testimony from a huddle participant in the US:

My first year Accessible Prophecy huddle was such a gift! Words cannot express the joy of seeing the impact of sharing with others what God is speaking to you! I have never been a part of a prophetic community before. It was like coming home! I am eager to pass on to others the life-transforming truths I learned.

We currently have more than 40 trained Accessible Prophecy coaches in 9 countries, with more people waiting to be trained. Our coaches are working across many different denominations. We offer ongoing support to our coaches through regular 'coaching catch-up' Zoom calls.

We are delighted to have had the opportunity for a number of in-person events alongside online workshops, webinars. We have been able to offer these events as a means of resourcing people, churches and networks, including the Salvation Army, the Church of England, New Wine Netherlands, and the Mennonites.

In September Catherine Livesey delivered a training day for the INNOVATE network of churches in Ontario, Canada, as well as speaking at the 'Lift' women's retreat in Nova Scotia. This Canadian visit was also an opportunity to invest in our Canadian team, spending valuable time with the team members.

We have delivered a series of training days for a network of churches in East Yorkshire which has been very well received.

As a team we are very clear on our shared ethos and training objectives, so wherever in the world people are accessing Accessible Prophecy events they will be getting the same high-quality teaching.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO ACCESSIBLE PROPHECY CIO

I report on the accounts of Accessible Prophecy CIO for the year ended 31 May, 2023

Respective responsibilities of the PCC and examiner

Accessible Prophecy CIO is responsible for the preparation of the accounts. Accessible Prophecy CIO considers that an audit is not required for this year (under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act);
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission; and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by Accessible Prophecy CIO and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from Accessible Prophecy CIO concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

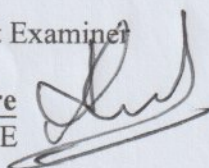

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or
- 2) To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives

Our aims, as set out in our constitution are:

To advance the Christian religion by raising awareness of religious beliefs and practices for the public benefit, by providing education and training amongst church communities.

Our objectives and activities are set to reflect our aims. Our core objectives are:

1. To provide excellent coaching, training and resources for Christians in order for them to learn about, and experience, listening prayer and prophecy.
2. To support churches as they seek to develop a healthy and biblical prophetic culture.

As we continue to work towards these objectives we are developing a growing network of Christians who are being strengthened in their faith and who are better equipped to make their local communities places of peace, justice and reconciliation.

Activities and Achievements

The charity carries out a wide range of activities in pursuance of its charitable aims. The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, in particular the specific guidance on the advancement of religion, and consider that these activities, summarised below, provide benefit, both to church members and the wider community.

Coaching

Our main training vehicle continues to be our coaching huddles. These are online cohorts of up to 6 people. Huddles last one year and follow an in-depth curriculum. We offer Year 1, Year 2, and Year 3 huddles.

We currently have 36 trained Accessible Prophecy coaches in 9 countries. They are working across many different denominations.

We are able to provide free or subsidised coaching to individuals who otherwise would not be able to afford the training.

We have a team member in the United States who has run a successful coaching cohort adapted for teens and young adults.

We are working in partnership with the 5Q Collective and over this past year we have jointly hosted a 12-week coaching cohort focused on prophetic intelligence and maturity.

We also offer shorter-term training cohorts focused on:

- Leadership Coaching on Prophetic Culture
- The Prophetic Call to Social Justice
- Prophetic Art: Listening & Creating

We are currently planning to offer some new coaching cohorts on prophecy in the workplace.

Workshops/Conferences/Webinars

As the world emerges from the pandemic we are delighted to have had the opportunity for some in-person events alongside many online workshops, webinars, and 'drop-in' sessions. We have been able to offer these events as a means of resourcing people and connecting with them.

As a team we are very clear on our shared ethos and training objectives, so wherever in the world people are accessing Accessible Prophecy events they will be getting the same high-quality teaching.

Over this last year we have run online events in Malaysia for the first time, and completed an online 'learning community' for a number of churches across Australia and New Zealand.

We were also able to host a successful in-person conference in Serbia which attracted people from across the country.

Regional Teams

We have regional teams established in:

The UK
The United States
Denmark
The Netherlands
The Balkans

Australia
New Zealand

Over this last year we have been delighted to oversee the formation of a new team in Canada. We are in the process of establishing a team in Malaysia.

The CEO provides ongoing support, vision, and direction to the team leaders through regular calls and huddles.

Content

One of our priorities is to provide churches with excellent resources for spiritual development.

The book My Sheep Have Ears is our primary resource and continues to receive great feedback. It has been translated into Dutch and Serbian. We also have The Prophecy Course and the Prophetic Lifestyle Course.

Catherine Livesey's new book Holy Disruption: Harnessing the Prophetic to Shape a More Christlike Church has been completed and is ready for publication.

We are excited about the launch of our new podcast: The Prophecy Project, hosted by Chris Wanstall and Andrew Hill in Australia.

Our finances

The Receipts and Payments account shows receipts of £18,575 and payments of £17,152. We also carried forward £10,064 from the previous year. This will be retained to ensure a reliable cashflow into next year.

Our principal source of funds are our coaching huddles. We have also received donations.

Structure, governance and management

The method of appointment of trustees is set out in the Accessible Prophecy CIO constitution.

The trustees meet four times a year. Steve McMurray is the chair.

The charity has two employees. Catherine Livesey is the CEO, responsible for leadership of the central team, the coaches and content production. Margaret Ibison is the finance manager, responsible for financial management.

Catherine Livesey and her husband StJohn Livesey are trustees of Accessible Prophecy CIO. As set out in the constitution, they are a minority of the trustees and are absent during discussions of her terms of employment.

Summary

As the world emerges from the Covid-19 pandemic Accessible Prophecy CIO has continued a steady expansion and consolidation of its work in nine countries around the world. We remain focused on providing excellent coaching, training and resources for Christians, alongside supporting churches as they seek to develop a healthy and biblical prophetic culture. We look forward to continuing our work next year.

Objectives

Our aims, as set out in our constitution are:

To advance the Christian religion by raising awareness of religious beliefs and practices for the public benefit, by providing education and training amongst church communities.

Our objectives and activities are set to reflect our aims. Our core objectives are:

1. To provide excellent coaching, training and resources for Christians in order for them to learn about, and experience, listening prayer and prophecy.
2. To support churches as they seek to develop a healthy and biblical prophetic culture.

As we continue to work towards these objectives we are developing a growing network of Christians who are being strengthened in their faith and who are better equipped to make their local communities places of peace, justice and reconciliation.

Activities and Achievements

The charity carries out a wide range of activities in pursuance of its charitable aims. The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, in particular the specific guidance on the advancement of religion, and consider that these activities, summarised below, provide benefit, both to church members and the wider community.

Coaching

At the moment our main training vehicle is our coaching huddles. These are online cohorts of up to 6 people. Huddles last one year and follow a detailed curriculum. We offer Year 1, Year 2, and Year 3 huddles.

We currently have 33 trained Accessible Prophecy coaches in 9 countries.

We are able to provide free or subsidised coaching to individuals who otherwise would not be able to afford the training.

We also offer shorter-term coaching cohorts focused on:

- Leadership Coaching on Prophetic Culture
- The Prophetic Call to Social Justice

We are currently planning to offer some new coaching cohorts on the use of art in worship, and Listening Prayer for Well-being.

We recently received this feedback from one of our huddle participants:

Being a part of a coaching huddle has been a wonderful journey of growing in my ability to not only hear God, but also to respond to him. The huddle has demystified “prophecy” for me by providing sound teaching based on biblical principles. I have been challenged to “exercise my prophetic muscles” in a very safe space, learning to hear for both myself and others. The beauty of this huddle is that learning and encouragement not only come from the coach, but also from the other participants who are in the huddle with me. I feel that this huddle experience has really accelerated my spiritual growth and has given me a deeper desire to build my relationship with God, and the tools with which to do it.

Workshops/Conferences

During the pandemic we have focused on online workshops, webinars, and ‘drop-in’ sessions, and have successfully run many of these events as means of resourcing people and connecting with them.

As a team we are very clear on our shared ethos and training objectives, so wherever in the world people are accessing Accessible Prophecy events they will be getting the same high-quality teaching.

Over this last year we have run an online ‘learning community’ for a number of churches across Australia and New Zealand.

Regional Teams

We have regional teams established in:

The UK
The United States
Denmark

The Netherlands
The Balkans
Australasia

The CEO provides ongoing support, vision, and direction to the team leaders through regular calls and huddles.

One of our priorities this year has been to deepen our investment in our regional teams. We have developed a program of team training and are currently rolling it out.

We are in the process of establishing teams in Canada and Malaysia.

Content

One of our priorities is to provide churches with excellent resources for spiritual development.

The book My Sheep Have Ears is our primary resource and continues to receive great feedback. It has been translated into Dutch and Serbian. We also have The Prophecy Course and the new Prophetic Lifestyle Course.

We publish a monthly blog via our website.

Catherine Livesey has been very busy this year working on her new book.

Our finances

The Receipts and Payments account shows receipts of £19,846 and payments of £9,782, providing a surplus of £10,064. This will be retained to ensure a reliable cashflow into next year.

Our principal source of funds are our coaching huddles. We have also received donations.

Structure, governance and management

The method of appointment of trustees is set out in the Accessible Prophecy CIO constitution.

The trustees meet four times a year. Steve McMurray is the chair.

The charity has two employees. Catherine Livesey is the CEO, responsible for leadership of the central team, the coaches and content production. Margaret Ibison is the finance manager, responsible for financial management. Margaret's work started as a voluntary post, and became paid from 1.4.21.

Catherine Livesey and her husband StJohn Livesey are trustees of Accessible Prophecy CIO. As set out in the constitution, they are a minority of the trustees and are absent during discussions of her terms of employment.

Summary

The Covid-19 pandemic presented a challenge to Accessible Prophecy CIO. Nevertheless, we have expanded our work, taken on another staff member and managed to maintain our finances. We look forward to continuing our work next year.
