Annual report and financial statements for the year ended 31st October 2024

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities for the accounts.

The purpose of this statement is to distinguish the trustees' responsibilities for the accounts from those of the accountants as stated in their report.

The Charities Act 2011 requires the trustees to ensure that accounting records are kept in respect of all charity's transactions, and to prepare a statement of accounts for each accounting period consisting of a statement of income and expenditure account and a balance sheet. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the charity's assets, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of error, fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the accounts the trustees are expected to:

- 1) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently, making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- 2) Follow the recommendations of the Charity Commission and of the accounting profession with regard to form and content of the accounts, or to disclose and explain any departures therefrom: and
- 3) Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charity will be able to continue to meet its objectives.

Independent Examiner's Report

To the Trustees on the unaudited accounts of Samuel Leeds Foundation

We report on the accounts of the Samuel Leeds Foundation for the year ended 31st October 2024, which are set out on pages 5-9.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and has requested that an independent examination is undertaken.

I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.

Having satisfied myself that the Charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to :

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention :

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material aspects the requirements.
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice.

Independent Examiner's Report

Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met OR

2) to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Annual report and financial statements for the year ended 31st October 2023

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities for the accounts.

The purpose of this statement is to distinguish the trustees' responsibilities for the accounts from those of the accountants as stated in their report.

The Charities Act 2011 requires the trustees to ensure that accounting records are kept in respect of all charity's transactions, and to prepare a statement of accounts for each accounting period consisting of a statement of income and expenditure account and a balance sheet. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the charity's assets, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of error, fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the accounts the trustees are expected to:

- 1) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently, making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- 2) Follow the recommendations of the Charity Commission and of the accounting profession with regard to form and content of the accounts, or to disclose and explain any departures therefrom: and
- 3) Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charity will be able to continue to meet its objectives.

Independent Examiner's Report

To the Trustees on the unaudited accounts of Samuel Leeds Foundation

We report on the accounts of the Samuel Leeds Foundation for the year ended 31st October 2023, which are set out on pages 5-9.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and has requested that an independent examination is undertaken as the charity gross income is more than £250,000.

I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.

Having satisfied myself that the Charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to :

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention :

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material aspects the requirements.
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice.

Independent Examiner's Report

Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met OR

2) to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Report

To the Trustees on the unaudited accounts of Samuel Leeds Foundation

We report on the accounts of the Samuel Leeds Foundation for the year ended 31st October 2023, which are set out on pages 5-9.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and has requested that an independent examination is undertaken as the charity gross income is more than £250,000.

- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Report

To the Trustees on the unaudited accounts of Samuel Leeds Foundation

We report on the accounts of the Samuel Leeds Foundation for the year ended 31st October 2022, which are set out on pages 5-9.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and has requested that an independent examination is undertaken even though the charity gross income is less than £250,000.

I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.

Having satisfied myself that the Charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to :

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention :

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material aspects the requirements.
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and

Annual report and financial statements for the year ended 31st October 2021

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities for the accounts.

The purpose of this statement is to distinguish the trustees' responsibilities for the accounts from those of the accountants as stated in their report.

The Charities Act 2011 requires the trustees to ensure that accounting records are kept in respect of all charity's transactions, and to prepare a statement of accounts for each accounting period consisting of a statement of income and expenditure account and a balance sheet. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the charity's assets, and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of error, fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the accounts the trustees are expected to:

- 1) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently, making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- 2) Follow the recommendations of the Charity Commission and of the accounting profession with regard to form and content of the accounts, or to disclose and explain any departures therefrom: and
- 3) Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charity will be able to continue to meet its objectives.

Independent Examiner's Report

To the Trustees on the unaudited accounts of Samuel Leeds Foundation

We report on the accounts of the Samuel Leeds Foundation for the year ended 31st October 2021, which are set out on pages 5-9.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and has requested that an independent examination is undertaken even though the charity gross income is less than £250,000.

I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants.

Having satisfied myself that the Charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to :

- examine the accounts (under section 145 of the 2011 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention :

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material aspects the requirements.
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006 and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice.
