Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To advance education for the public benefit in the subjects of horticulture, healthy eating, conservation of natural resources and improvement of wildlife diversity, by providing opportunities for learning in and around Whitby Park Community Garden. To promote for the benefit of the inhabitants of Cheshire West and Chester the provision of facilities for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, financial hardship, or social and economic circumstances or for the public at large in the interests of social welfare and with the object of improving the condition of life of the said inhabitants.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	We have continued to deliver a 12 week 'Gardening for All' programme as part of Cheshire's Natural Health Service (ChNaHS) in collaboration with The Mersey Forest and Chester and Cheshire West Council. The programme aims to promote participants wellbeing and physical activity through social engagement and advancement of people's education in the subjects of horticulture, healthy eating, conservation of natural resources and improvement of wildlife diversity, by providing opportunities for learning in and around the garden and wider Whitby Park. Since the pandemic, there continues to be an increasing appetite for growing good food, eating healthier and living better active lives, whilst connecting with people, wildlife, green space and the local community. The 'Gardening for All' programme provides a range of seasonal horticultural activities and learning opportunities delivered throughout the year such as: Cultivation of fruit, vegetables, flowers and herbs; Composting and creating healthy soil; Preparing the ground for planting; Seed sowing; Transplanting; Propagation; Lifting and dividing; Watering and rainwater harvesting; Indoor and outdoor growing spaces; Pruning; Food harvesting; Seed collection and storage; Plant and tree identification; Introduction to different cultivation methods such as, crop rotations, no dig; permaculture and biodynamics. As well as horticultural activities, we also facilitate woodwork projects, such as making bird boxes and bird feeders. We have also had a team of volunteers working on the design and construction of raised beds to make the garden more accessible for all. We have expanded our service offer to include green arts and crafts which provide more activities for volunteers throughout the autumn and winter season. Some of the products that we create are bought by members of the community along with the fresh food and flowers that we produce. We are also increasing biodiversity in the garden through the development of wildlife areas and projects that support a healthy diverse ecosystem.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and have acted accordingly.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Many of the participants who complete the initial twelve-week activity programme continue to return as volunteers. Every year the volunteer base grows in strength and together we have developed the garden into a diverse and vibrant outdoor space. The garden is accessible and open to all and welcomes new participants on a weekly basis. Throughout the year: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 53 new participants registered to do the twelve week 'Gardening for All' programme. • 36, (two thirds) of those who registered went on to complete the 12-week programme. • 20 of those who completed the programme in 2024 continued to volunteer and remain active in the garden. In total, 51 regular/ long term volunteers helped to maintain the garden and work alongside new participants. The sessions (often personal and tailored for each participant): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide a range of activities to improve participants' health and wellbeing, increase social connections and improve the local environment. • Provide a friendly and supportive environment where participants can connect with each other and their community. • Provide a learning environment that helps participants improve their self-esteem and confidence. • Support participants to access longer term volunteering opportunities. • Remove barriers to learning and improve skills that are required to access further employment and training. • Encourage and explore different and unusual varieties of fresh produce through tasting and sharing favourite recipes. The garden is an important part of many peoples' lives. Some volunteers have been coming to the garden every week for many years.

		We delivered volunteer social events throughout the year, including a summer BBQ, a Christmas get together and a New Year planning event. The wider community also benefited from visiting the garden, engaging with volunteers, connecting with nature and can try fresh locally grown produce from the garden.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	In these financial results we reflect on more balanced year due to in part to more volunteer projects and activities being undertaken in 2024. This was helped by the increase in grant funding as outlined in the previous year's report. Income of £1,919.57 was generated from charitable activities. £3,375.00 was from company and local community fund donations. The total income for the period was £5,294.57. Of this income, £4,917.06 of expenses was spent on charitable activities and administrative costs along with purchasing supplies for grant funded projects and garden supplies including additional materials for craft activities. Creditors falling due at the end of the reporting period was £0. Overall, the charity made a profit of £377.51 for the period.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The financial reserve policy is an estimated two-years cost plus activities. Trustees place a maintain priority on maintaining this and will continue to review as the charity progresses. The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£3000
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	None
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	None
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	Continued discussions are happening between Cheshire West and Chester Council over the renewal of a lease for the land. We have still been unable to secure this in 2024 due to the council changing the way they lease land and assets. We have now completed an application process for a community asset transfer and will continue to pursue this in 2025.
