APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

Beneficiaries were grateful for the food parcels. This was done by them providing a copy of their ID card. This was to ensure fair distribution amongst households.

Food included:

Rice

Flour

Lentils

Dried milk powder

Tea bags

Soft drinks

Identified children that would benefit from warm clothes. Bought loose material. Sourced a local person to take measurements and sew to the size required.

When a person was unable to pay for medicine, this would be purchased for them.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

At the moment we are a small operation, and no salaries are paid. All work is carried out by local volunteers and community. When we increase in size, we will devise the necessary policy.
