Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	Our charitable purpose at Local Families with Bleeding Disorders is to promote social inclusion among children with bleeding disorders and their parents, carers, siblings and other family members who offer them support and, to raise awareness of bleeding disorders and the impact they have on lives to ensure a wider understanding and acceptance among the broader general public.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	We run an active Facebook group to support over 250 members on advice, support, event publication and competitions. We ran a number of events across the whole year for our members, including a family picnic with circus skills, an outdoor activity day and Christmas lights bus tour. We have retained accurate accounts, including using our database for member details to improve our communications. We held our annual strategic planning day for the committee, which enabled both the committee and trustee team to refresh the charity's vision, plan for the coming year and review the charity structure in terms of making sure we are working in the most efficient way. We also continue to have regular committee and trustee meetings, including conversations on how best both the trustee and committee teams can continue to act. We have taken on a consultant to assist with our admin work which has really boosted our efficiency and ability as a team to help more families within our community.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	We have continued to focus on providing events for the broad range of ages across our members, ensuring that everyone is catered to wherever possible and allowing both children and parents to make important connections with others just like them and build support that way. This year, we have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Held a picnic in a central London park, with circus skills and games • Run a day trip to Sayers Croft Outdoor Learning Centre, where families took part in activities including ropes courses, caving and wall climbing

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Toured the London Christmas lights on a double decker bus once more, including a visit from Father Christmas and gifts to all, for around 70 people • Continued to issue bravery awards to encourage children going through challenges All our events were extremely well attended, and provided a mixture of busy activities and more relaxed times to ensure that they were both entertaining but also allowed space for important socialising time. Our Facebook group also continues to be a place where people can ask all sorts of questions from families who have been through the same things that they are facing, and find support, reassurance and helpful suggestions.

CHARITY NAME: Local Families With Bleeding Disorders

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2025 which are set out on the pages attached

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and the examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (The Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act) and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

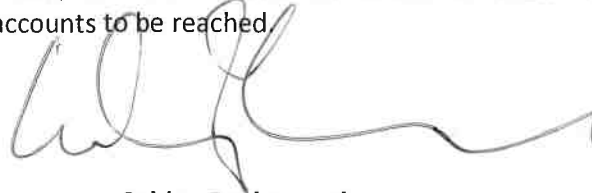

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair" view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the requirements of the Charities Act; have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

LOCAL FAMILIES WITH BLEEDING DISORDERS

On accounts for the year ended

31st March 2024
Charity no (if any) 1186979

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2024.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Para 1.17 and 1.19	We run an active Facebook group to support over 200 members on advice, support, event publication and competitions. During the year we launched a new database to help ensure better communication with our members, with over 75 members so far and continuing to grow. During this year, we received an extremely generous anonymous donation via a family we have got to know well, which will enable us to continue in our work. One member has chosen us as her charity to support through her work matched scheme, and two members did their Duke of Edinburgh Award volunteering with us. We have retained accurate accounts, including using the new GDPR safe database for member details to improve our communications. We held a strategic planning day for the committee, facilitated by an external consultant, which enabled both the committee and trustee team to refresh the charity's vision, plan for the coming year and review the charity structure in terms of making sure we are working in the most efficient way. We intend to repeat this on an annual cycle, with a six-month review online.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2022

Responsibilities and

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
